MEDIA INFORMATION

The 2012 Oregon State football media guide is a source of information intended for the news media. Additional information is available upon request from the Oregon State Athletics Communications Office. News releases and photographs will be made available to accredited members of the media. The OSU Athletics Communications Office is located, adjacent to Reser Stadium and the Valley Football Center, on the second floor of Gill Coliseum in room 209.

MEDIA CREDENTIALS

Credentials to cover Oregon State home football games may be secured by contacting Steve Fenk, Associate Athletic Director/Communications at 541-737-7470 or steve.fenk@oregonstate.edu.

MEDIA PARKING

Limited media parking is available immediately behind the press box on the west side of the stadium (enter off Western Blvd.). Overflow parking is available approximately three blocks from the press box in the OSU Foundation lot.

PHOTOGRAPHY REGULATIONS

Photo passes will be issued only to accredited photographers on assignment. Photographers should proceed to the press box when arriving at the stadium to obtain an armband for field access. NCAA regulations forbid photographers from being between the 25-yard lines.

PRESS BOX

The fourth level of the Reser Stadium press box serves as the media center. Radio and television booths are located from approximately the 50-yard line to the left as you look onto the field. The remainder of the seating is for the print media. A photo deck runs nearly the length of the press box and is located off the fourth level. Lunch or dinner is served in the press box.

POSTGAME WORK AREAS

Two working areas postgame are available for use – the press box at Reser Stadium or the media room in Gill Coliseum (located near the opponents' lockerroom). The usual statistical packets with quotes will be delivered to both areas.

INTERNET

Wireless internet access is available at all working areas of Reser Stadium and Gill Coliseum. Please see the OSU Communications staff for the access code.

PROFESSIONAL SCOUTS

Professional scouts are generally seated in the second row of the press box, behind the print media. Some seats have partially obstructed views.

PRACTICES

Practices are open to the media and public. Generally, interviews are conducted post-practice on Tuesdays-Thursdays for Saturday games. Video may be shot of practice with some limitations, please see the on-field Communications personnel for that day's schedule.

PAC-12 TELECONFERENCE

The Pacific-12 Conference conducts a weekly press conference on Tuesday with all 12 head coaches. For the time and access information please contact the conference office at (925) 932-4411. The Conference also provides a weekly video satellite feed.

RADIO

GAME DAY — Beaver Sports Properties, a division of Learfield Sports, produces game-day radio broadcasts and special programming, syndicated on the Beaver Sports Radio Network. The 8-hour broadcasts consist of over 30 stations across Oregon and is anchored by the Portland flagship station NewsRadio 1190 KEX and its sister stations KEX 102.3 FM and KPOJ 620 AM.

Mike Parker, the "voice of the Beavers", handles the play-by-play and is joined in the booth by former Beaver lineman and OSU Hall of Famer Jim Wilson. Ron Callan handles the pregame and sideline duties during the broadcasts with NewsRadio 1190 Sports Director Scott Lynn hosting the postgame show.

Beaver Sports Network programming begins two hours before kickoff with the "Countdown to Kickoff Show" and signs off approximately two hours after each game following the popular "Beaver Wrap Up Show."

NewsRadio 1190 KEX, owned locally by ClearChannel Radio, is the home of the Beaver Sports Radio Network. Along with its extended football coverage, KEX or its sister stations will broadcast Beaver men's basketball and baseball games, and every Beaver Sports Talk (Tues. or Thurs.) from late August through early April. Oregon State enjoys the strongest comprehensive radio package in the Pac-12 Conference by offering the most total hours of play-by-play and auxiliary programming.

There will be several options to complement local radio with football and men's basketball games available on XM Satellite Radio (official partner of the Pac-12 Conference), internet audio through Beaver Nation Online's audio service. Beaver Nation Online links are available at www.osubeavers.com.

MIKE PARKER

Mike Parker is entering his 14th season calling OSU football, men's basketball and baseball action and has been behind the microphone for some of the school's crowning achievements on the athletic fields.

The "Voice of the Beavers" is a 1982 graduate of the University of Oregon with a bachelor's degree in rhetoric and communications. His broadcasting career includes play-by-play for football, basketball and baseball for high school sports in Oregon, beginning in 1977. He was the voice of the Eugene Emeralds (1983-86) minor league baseball club and the Oregon women's basketball program (1983-87). He also was the play-by-play voice of the AAA Portland Beavers from 1987-92.

Parker hosted a show on all-sports KFXR Radio from 1990-95 before moving to KEX Radio as host of Sportsline and the Fifth Quarter program following Portland Trail Blazers games. Parker has been named the Oregon Sportscaster of the Year six times, including in 2008. Mike and his wife Missy have two daughters, Lydia and Ellie.

RON CALLAN

Ron Callan has spent over 35 years in the broadcast media business, all in the Pacific Northwest, and is in his fifth year as a member of the Beaver broadcast team. Callan handles sideline duties as well as hosting the pre- and post-game shows. He has been named the Associated Press Sportscaster of the Year three times.

Callan spent seven seasons as the sideline reporter for the Seattle Seahawks' radio network after a 10-year stint hosting the Washington Huskies' postgame show on KIRO TV in Seattle.

The 1974 Linfield College graduate also has worked for KVDO TV in Salem, KTVB TV in Boise, KHQ TV in Spokane and Root Sports. Callan, a former opera singer, has three children — Cassie, Daniel and Lily.

BEAVER NATION LIVE — NewsRadio 1190 KEX produces a one hour nightly program devoted to Oregon State Athletics, Beaver Nation Live. The show features OSU student-athletes, coaches and administrators.

BEAVERS IN SPANISH — In 2003, Oregon State Athletics, through Beaver Sports Properties, became the first Northwest school to offer Spanish-language broadcasts to the Latino community. For the ninth consecutive year every football game will be offered in Spanish and in 2012 it will be available by a fourth-year partnership with KWIP-AM, a 5,000-watt station in Dallas, Ore., covering the Willamette Valley. Juan De Dios Andrade handles play-by-play and Jose Luis Lupercio provides commentary.

KWIP
880 am

BEAVER SPORTS TALK — In addition, Beaver stations also carry "Beaver Sports Talk" a weekly statewide call-in show every Thursday (Tuesdays for weekday games) night from 7-8 p.m. featuring head coach Mike Riley and Mike Parker. BST is live from McMenamins Brewpub on Monroe Street in Corvallis and airs on most of the Beaver Sports Radio Network stations, and is streamed live on Beaver Nation Online on www.osubeavers.com.

THE JOE BEAVER SHOW — Each weekday from Noon to 2 p.m. Mike Parker and Jon Warren host an OSU sports-themed show in the Greater Corvallis area on 1240 KEJO and is available worldwide on kejoam.com.

JIM WILSON

Jim Wilson is in his ninth year on the OSU football radio crew, and has also worked as a color analyst on OSU baseball broadcasts.

He is one of the top two-sport student-athletes in the history of the school, participating in baseball and football.

Wilson, a member of the OSU Sports Hall of Fame, still holds the school record for home runs in one season with 21 and for single season (.829) and career (.640) slugging percentage. He was the Pac-10 Conference's Northern Division MVP and third team All-American in 1982. Wilson was drafted by the Cleveland Indians in 1982 and played Major League Baseball with the Indians and Seattle Mariners, and in Japan. Wilson lettered in football as an offensive lineman in 1980 and '81.

Jim and his wife Lisa have been married for 25 years and have twin daughters, Esti and Evan.

SCOTT LYNN

Scott Lynn returns to the Beaver broadcasting lineup for the 2012-13 athletic year and for the football season serves as the host of the postgame radio show.

Lynn has served as the sports director for NewsRadio 1190 KEX for the last 22 years and is the co-host of the Morning Update, one of the top rated morning shows in Portland. He has been named the Oregon Sportscaster of the Year seven times, and won three Edward R. Murrow regional awards (outstanding achievement in electronic journalism).

Lynn's professional experience began in 1976 as a television reporter in Decatur, Ill., before moving to Tampa, Fla. He came to Portland in 1980 as the sports director at KGW and in 1989 began work at KEX. He has also served as the TV play-by-play voice for professional, college and high school athletics on Root Sports NW, Comcast SportsNet NW, Versus and on the former Oregon State TV Network.

The 1976 graduate of Southern Illinois University, where he played basketball, is also a published author — writing Thornridge: The Perfect Season in Black and White.

STEVE PREECE

Steve Preece has been a mainstay with the Beavers both on the field as a quarterback on the famed 1967 "Giant Killers" team and in the booth as a color analyst for Beaver broadcasts. The 1969 OSU graduate played nine seasons in the NFL for the New Orleans Saints, Philadelphia Eagles, Denver Broncos, Los Angeles Rams and Seattle Seahawks. He played on four conference championship teams with the Rams.

Preece adds insight on network pre-game radio and interviews head coach Mike Riley from the Valley Football Center following home games. The interview is live on the "Dam Cam" video board and on the radio. He is married to Karen Renee Hammer. Preece has two sons, Travis and Nick, and a daughter Whitney and her husband Pete. He also has one grandson, Travis.

JUAN DE DIOS ANDRADE

Juan De Dios Andrade is the voice of OSU's Spanish language broadcasts. Andrade has been behind the microphone for OSU football since 2003 and has called both Beaver baseball College World Series titles.

Andrade has over 18 years of radio experience. In addition to his OSU duties, he has hosted several Spanish sports shows, served as the play-by-play announcer for several Mexican soccer teams, the Portland Timbers, the Seattle Mariners and for the Basketball Tournament of the Americas.

He is a graduate of Morelia Preparatory in Morelia, Mexico with a diploma in education.

LEARFIELD SPORTS

Welcome to Learfield Sports, and we hope that you find the information on our corporate site to be beneficial. For 35 years, we have excelled in administering the multimedia rights for a host of reputable colleges and universities. We also provide exclusive sports programming to more than 1,000 radio stations throughout the country, secure marketing partnerships for the Black Coaches and Administrators (BCA), and spearhead corporate partner platforms for the Big Ten Conference, Missouri Valley Conference and the Western Athletic Conference. Our strategic affiliation with Team Services, LLC also affords our partners a distinct advantage in the areas of venue consulting, naming rights and market research. With roots firmly planted in collegiate sports, we celebrate the opportunity to brand our name in connection with one of the industry's most prestigious awards – the Directors' Cup – having renamed it the Learfield Sports Directors' Cup in partnership with USA Today and NACDA.

Our mission to "Build the Team, Grow the Company and Have Fun" is accentuated through a culture driven to exceed goals, serve partners enthusiastically, work as a team, celebrate successes, and do what is right and honest in every endeavor. Collectively, we remain unwavering in our commitment to ensure each and every relationship is served to the best of our ability, while building on our strengths and striving to lead the way in college sports.

OSU HISTORY / TRADITIONS

THE FIGHT SONG

*OSU our hats are off to you,
Beavers, Beavers, fighters thru and thru,
We'll cheer thru-out the land,
We'll root for every stand,
That's made for old OSU.*

*Watch our team go tearing down the field;
Those of iron, their strength will never yield.
Hail! Hail! Hail! Hail!
Hail to old OSU*

NICKNAME — THE BEAVERS

In the early days of the institution, Oregon State University's athletic teams were known as the Aggies. When orange uniforms replaced the drab sweatshirt gray and tan jerseys, the teams were referred to as the Orangemen.

In 1916 the school yearbook was renamed "The Beaver" and the name Beaver became associated with the school. It is believed the press also had some influence in changing the name, particularly L.H. Gregory of The Oregonian newspaper. The name gained instant popularity among alumni and students.

The Beaver is the state's official animal.

THE MASCOT — BENNY

Benny Beaver was adopted as Oregon State University's mascot in 1952 after the school had a reported three previous mascots. The first mascot in 1893 was a coyote named Jimmie, owned by M.M.H. Kriebel. In 1909, a second mascot appeared on the scene. Dr. John Bell, a Corvallis pastor and former regent of Corvallis when the college was taken over by the state and became Oregon Agricultural College. In the early 1900s, "Doc Bell" was considered to be the varsity football squad's "mascot" because of his steadfast attendance and advising. In 1921 there was an attempt to make a live Beaver, "Bevo", into the school mascot, but with little success.

Benny Beaver, OSU's current mascot, was introduced to the student body by the school's rally squad on September 18, 1952, in an effort to pick up sagging school spirit.

"Benny Beaver, the rally squad's candidate for handsomest man in school, has never been on campus before," according to The Barometer (student paper), at the time.

"The animal stands six-feet tall, wears vivid orange knickerbockers, a black jersey, and his familiar orange and black rooters lid."

Adopted as the official mascot in 1952, Benny Beaver still fires up the crowds at OSU athletic events today.

Benny Beaver, while officially accepted as the school's mascot in 1952, actually can be traced back to the 1940-41 school year. A statue of a beaver named "Benny" appears in the school's yearbook, and later a Barometer sports columnist used the pen name "Benny Beaver."

TEAM COLORS — ORANGE & BLACK

Oregon State was known as Corvallis College until the mid 1890s and the school color was navy blue. A faculty committee appointed by school President John Bloss voted to replace blue with orange. Not long after, black was selected by the student body as a background color. A local tailor named J.H. Harris donated black uniforms for the baseball team in this time frame, and it is believed to be where the black color scheme began in athletics, although that is debatable. An article in the local Corvallis Gazette-Times in 1892 describes the use of orange and black in commencement ceremonies, nearly a year prior to orange becoming the official color.

While orange was originally the official color, over the years black has become more universally accepted as one of the official colors. Today, nearly all of OSU accepts black and Pantone 1665 orange as the official colors.

NEW MEDIA COMMUNICATION

OFFENSIVE LINE

#63

2012: Justin is a highly thought of offensive lineman in the program and will vie for a starting spot on the line in 2012 ... worked at tackle as one of eight healthy offensive linemen during the spring practice session. 2011: Redshirt.

SKYLINE: Two-year varsity offensive tackle, but did not play as a senior due to a wrist injury ... all-region as a junior and a two-year team captain ... three-year letterman in basketball as a center, where he earned honorable mention all-state as a senior.

PERSONAL: Born September 30, 1993 in Chicago ... son of Tom and Bettina Addie ... Tom played football at Bowling Green ... has one sister, Maya, and a brother, Zach ... his cousin, Doyen Harris, plays football at The Citadel ... was the Homecoming King as a senior and runner up for the Big Man on Campus honor ... chose OSU because of the "family atmosphere, campus, coaching staff and the business and communication programs" ... intends to be a football coach ... studying new media communication.

RUNNING BACK

2012: Malcolm returns for his second season and plans to pick up where he left off prior to a hamstring injury that limited his availability for several weeks in 2011 ... he'll vie with several other returning backs to be the primary ballcarrier ... possesses good hands, excellent balance and vision. 2011: Won the starting tailback spot in fall camp ... one of 10 true freshmen to play in 2011, an Oregon State record ... became the first true freshman in modern history to start the season opener at running back at OSU ... rushed into the record books in his collegiate debut with 33 carries for 223 yards and three touchdowns against Sacramento State - an OSU freshman record and ninth-best rushing performance in OSU history ... earned College Football Performance Awards honorable mention following the season opener ... pulled his right hamstring in practice leading up to game 2 and missed next four games (Wisconsin, UCLA, Arizona State and Arizona) ... returned to play against BYU, then started next four games ... finished the season as the Beavers' leading rusher with 423 yards and tied for a team-high five rushing touchdowns.

DE SMET JESUIT: Two-year starter at cornerback and running back ... 28-8 record as a member of the varsity team for three years (state semifinals as a junior and senior) ... Rivals ranked him the 45th best running back prospect in the nation ... two-year team captain ... two-time All-Metro Catholic Conference (6A) running back ... all-state cornerback as a junior ... rushed for 904 yards and 17 touchdowns as a junior, and 505 yards and seven touchdowns in an injury-shortened senior season ... four-year varsity track member (sprinter) where he was among the fastest in the state in the 100 and 200 meters.

PERSONAL: Born May 17, 1993 in Winston-Salem, North Carolina ... son of Ray Agnew Jr., and Kathy Agnew ... Ray is former 11-year NFL veteran (Patriots, Giants and Rams) and currently serves as a scout for the Rams - he played college football at North Carolina State ... has two siblings, Ray III and Keenan ... Ray III is a junior running back at Southern Illinois University ... honor roll student at De Smet Jesuit with a 3.50 cumulative GPA and was named one of the school's Men of the Year for 2011 ... chose OSU because "I felt at home the instant I visited and I like Coach (Mike) Riley and his beliefs. I also like the pro-style offense and I know I will get a good education." ... studying new media communication.

Mike RILEY*12th SEASON AT OREGON STATE*37 YEARS OF COACHING EXPERIENCE*ALABAMA, '75*HEAD COACH

Mike Riley is on the verge of becoming Oregon State's all-time winningest football coach as he enters the 2012 season with 72 victories, just two short of Lon Stiner (1933-48). Riley is the longest tenured coach in the Pac-12 Conference, entering his 12th season leading the Orange and Black.

His résumé sparkles with achievements. He was the 2008 American Football Coaches Association (AFCA), Pac-10 Conference and State of Oregon Coach of the Year, and his teams have appeared in the final Associated Press top-25 rankings in three of the last six seasons.

The 59-year-old head coach has guided the Beavers to six bowl games in the last nine years, winning five, and started the rejuvenation of the program during his first tenure in 1997-98 that subsequently made three postseason appearances. When he took control of the program in the winter of 1997, Oregon State was mired in a streak of 28 consecutive losing seasons. While his first two teams did not post winning marks, the competitiveness of the program increased dramatically and the foundation was laid for teams that would play in bowl games in nine of the next 13 years.

Riley enters the 2012 season ranked tied for 23rd for all-time victories by a Pac-12 head coach and second among active league coaches for victories (Jeff Tedford/Cal/79). His 44 league victories positions him 20th in Conference history.

He has also led his team to outstanding success in the classroom, where over the last five years Beavers have been honored by the league for academic achievement 56 times. He's developed future NFL players as well with 25 draftees since his second arrival in 2003 and has had 77 all-conference and 39 All-America selections.

Riley's pro style approach to how he manages the program has paid dividends to players who have gone on to successful professional careers. Eighteen former Beavers who were coached by Riley were in the NFL at the end of 2011, including quarterbacks Matt Moore (Miami), Derek Anderson (Carolina) and Sean Canfield (New Orleans). Anderson, running back Steven Jackson (St. Louis) and defensive back Brandon Browner (Seattle) have each earned Pro Bowl honors.

Riley is the first coach in OSU history to win more than one NCAA-sanctioned bowl game at OSU, capturing the 2003 Las Vegas Bowl, the 2004 Insight Bowl, the 2006 and 2008 Sun Bowls, and the 2007 Emerald Bowl titles. He also is the first coach to lead the program to more than one winning conference season (5-3 in '04, 6-3 in '06, 6-3 in '07, 7-2 in '08 and 6-3 in '09) since 1969.

Under Riley, Oregon State has not been shy about playing challenging non-conference games.

Since 2003, 10 of the 12 out of league road opponents have finished the season in the AP-top 25. He's also experienced success against top-25 teams winning 10 games, including three times against teams ranked No. 3 or higher.

It's difficult to select the best season Oregon State has had with Riley at the helm. The 2006 team certainly is at the top of charts as it is the second club in OSU history to capture at least 10 victories. The Beavers won eight of their final nine games, including defeating No. 3 USC and ending the Trojans' 27-game Pac-10 win streak. OSU also ended a lengthy Aloha Stadium win streak of Hawai'i and capped off the year with a thrilling victory over Missouri (39-38) in arguably the best Sun Bowl ever played. The final summary of the season showed OSU finishing third in the Pac-10, just one game behind co-winners

"You really want to play hard for him. He really empowers you as a player to play hard and play well and be creative. I have not seen a team that plays harder."

— Jim Harbaugh, former NFL quarterback and current San Francisco 49ers head coach

USC and California. OSU ended the year ranked No. 21 in the final AP Poll.

The 2008 Beavers lost more starters than any other Pac-10 team, but Riley and his staff found replacements within the program to turn what was expected to be a rebuilding year into a 9-4 season and the program's second-best ever mark in the Pac-10 Conference at 7-2 (tied for second). All of this while playing a schedule that was considered one of the toughest in the nation that included three BCS bowl teams (USC, Utah, Penn State). The keynote victory of the season was a 27-21 win over then No. 1 USC in a nationally televised Thursday game. The season culminated with a 3-0 victory over No. 18 Pittsburgh in the Sun Bowl, a game OSU played without two of the team's top three offensive weapons – Pac-10 Offensive MVP and All-America running back Jacquizz Rodgers and his brother receiver James Rodgers. The team ended the year No. 18 in the final Associated Press Poll and No. 19 in the USA Today.

His 2007 team won seven of the final eight games on the way to a 9-4 mark, just one game behind co-Pac-10 champions USC and Arizona State at 6-3 in the league. OSU won at No. 2 California when a Bear victory would have moved them to No. 1 and beat No. 18 Oregon in Eugene. The defensive unit finished first in the nation against the run and accumulated the most yards lost via tackles than any other team in the Football Bowl Subdivision. The Beavers put the finishing touches to the season and a No. 25 final ranking with a victory over Maryland in the Emerald Bowl.

Riley returned to the Beaver sideline for the second time in 2003 and led the team to the Las Vegas

Bowl title over New Mexico. The team set numerous individual and team records, and led the Pac-10 for both offense and defense. He followed up the '03 team's success by signing the program's best ever recruiting class, according to several scouting organizations.

In 2004 the team accepted the challenge of playing both the '03 defending national champions, the eventual 2004 national champions and faced one of the most difficult schedules overall in the nation. The team fought through early setbacks before defeating Oregon in the annual Civil War in then record fashion. The victory over the archrivals propelled OSU to a convincing 38-21 victory over Notre Dame in the Insight Bowl. The Beavers closed 2004 winning six of their final seven games and pushing Orange Bowl/National champion USC to the wire.

In 2009, Riley and his staff had a monumental task of replacing nearly every starter on defense and a total of seven NFL draftees. The Beavers not only qualified for a bowl game, but also for the second straight year played the season finale for the opportunity to receive the Rose Bowl berth. A league-high seven Beavers earned first team All-Pac-10 honors and the team finished higher than the preseason predictions for the fourth consecutive year.

While the 2010 team did not qualify for a bowl game, there were still plenty of highlights. The Beavers played the most difficult schedule in the nation competing against four teams that finished the year in the top seven of the national polls, and winning two games over top-25 clubs. OSU featured Stephen Paea (DT) earning Pac-10 Defensive Player of the Year and for the second time was named the recipient of the league's Morris Trophy, awarded to the conference's top defensive lineman. Jacquizz Rodgers earned

Pac-10 First Team for the third consecutive season and joined just two other former Pac-10 running backs (Napolean Kauffman and Charles White) as three-time honorees. Riley also led the "Beaver Nation" charge to school records for average home attendance (45,509) and for season ticket sales (26,952).

Riley left Oregon State after the 1998 season to pursue a unique opportunity to become the head coach of the National Football League's San Diego Chargers. He spent four years in the NFL, returning to Oregon State after a one-year stint as an assistant with the New Orleans Saints. Riley was a popular choice when he was originally hired for the position in late December of 1996 and was equally as popular upon his hiring the second time.

He calls Corvallis his hometown, although he was born in Wallace, Idaho. He grew up watching Beaver football, as his father Bud was an assistant coach for the program from 1965-72 and again in 1979. Mike was a standout quarterback at Corvallis High School, leading the Spartans to the 1970 state title.

"There's something refreshing about his (Mike Riley) attitude. Because there's something inspiring about a guy like Riley thriving in a brutal business that often rewards the disingenuous and those who are willing to take short cuts. I'd go so far to say that Riley is role-modeling what we should all be seeking for ourselves: He's well-liked, well-paid, respected, successful, secure and content. To me, that casts a warm glow."

before being named the youngest coach in CFL history in 1987 with Winnipeg at 33-years of age. Riley guided the Bombers to two Grey Cup titles (1988, '90) and was named the CFL's Coach of the Year in those seasons. He was inducted into the club's Hall of Fame June 13, 2007.

In 1991 Riley took over the San Antonio Riders of the World Football League, spending two seasons before the league suspended its North American operations.

He returned to the college ranks in 1993 when then USC head coach John Robinson offered him the position of offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach – he later became assistant head coach. The Mesa (Ariz.) Tribune named him the league's top assistant coach in 1993 after leading the Trojans' offense to record setting numbers. Then USC quarterback Rob Johnson earned numerous Pac-10 and NCAA records, and would later become a first-round draft pick.

Riley remained at USC through the 1997 season, helping the Trojans to victories in the Rose, Cotton, and Freedom Bowls. USC won one outright league title, shared another and finished second one time.

In addition, Riley has been the head coach for three postseason all-star games – the Hula Bowl, East-West Shrine Game and Blue-Gray All-Star Classic.

Mike and his wife Dee are the parents of one son, Matthew, and one daughter, Kate. They also have a grandson, Elijah Jo. Matthew, an OSU graduate, is currently employed within the Beaver Athletic Department as a video specialist and he and his wife Lydia (an OSU graduate student) live in Corvallis. Kate is a 2011 OSU graduate and also resides in Corvallis. Mike's brother, Edward Riley, is a physician and Associate Professor at the Stanford University School of Medicine.

Riley is under contract at OSU through 2019 – his contract rolls over one year for every time the team plays in a bowl game.

His success at all levels is well documented. Riley has earned the respect of players, coaches, media and fans. He has been called the savior of Oregon State football and the future continues to look bright for the Orange and Black.

A By-the-Numbers Look at Offenses

By Mike Huguenin, Yahoo! Sports

We're a long way away from the first game of the season, which gives – ahem – bored folks some time for some numbers-crunching.

Here are some numbers:

- Eight schools can lay claim to having had the most balanced offenses since the turn of the century. Boise State, Houston, Missouri, Oklahoma, Oregon State, Texas, USC and Western Michigan have had at least five 1,000-yard rushers, 3,000-yard passers and 1,000-yard receivers apiece, starting with the 2000 season. Oklahoma (Bob Stoops) and Texas (Mack Brown) are the only teams in that group to have had the same head coach the entire time.

- In terms of winning percentage from 2000 through last season, Boise State is No. 1, Oklahoma No. 2, Texas No. 3 and USC No. 7. The others: Oregon State is tied for 38th, Missouri is No. 41, Houston No. 57 and Western Michigan No. 64. At 49.3 percent, Western is the only one of the eight not above 50.

- The most balanced offense of them all? Using the Yahoo! Sports "Diversification Quotient," it's Oregon State and USC, with a quotient of 23 (1,000-yard rushers + 3,000-yard passers + 3,000-yard receivers = the quotient). Oregon State has had nine 1,000-yard rushers, six 3,000-yard passers and eight 1,000-yard receivers. USC has had six 1,000-yard rusher, seven 3,000-yard passers and 10 1,000-yard receivers.

Jay Locey is in his seventh year at Oregon State as the Assistant Head Coach, working with the tight ends for the fourth year. He has also coached the wide receivers for three seasons.

He came to OSU after a tremendously successful career at Linfield College in nearby McMinnville. Locey brought to the Beavers many of the aspects that made him one of the most successful coaches in small college football, including the well-received team building activities that he credits for much of the success at his former program.

In 2011, Locey coached tight end Joe Halahuni to one of the best years in OSU history for the position. Halahuni finished his career with 13 touchdowns receiving, the ninth-most in school history. The senior caught 31 passes and for his career had 97 receptions.

His 2010 wide receiver corps had to overcome the loss of All-America receiver James Rodgers due to injury early in the season. With the loss of the veteran receiver, Locey developed a young group that has excelled. Then sophomore Markus Wheaton led the team in receptions in 2010 with 54.

In 2009, Rodgers earned Pac-10 first team honors after setting a school record with 91 receptions. He led the Pac-10 and ranked 13th in the nation for receptions per game (7.0). The junior also ranked second in the league for receiving yards per game (79.5), and was the league-leader and seventh in the nation for all-purpose yards (179.1).

Locey's receivers in 2008 had a banner year that culminated with a Pac-10 First Team selection in Sammie Stroughter, who was later invited to the East-West Shrine Game and was drafted in the seventh round by the Tampa Bay Buccaneers. His other two starters, James Rodgers and Shane Morales, also earned Pac-10 honors. That trio of receivers all ranked in the top-10 of the Conference in receptions per game, with Stroughter leading the league with 80 yards receiving per outing.

Locey spent the first two seasons at OSU working with the tight ends. In 2006 he coached senior Joe Newton, who earned postseason all-conference honors and competed in the Senior Bowl. Newton finished his career with the most touchdowns (15) ever for a Beaver tight end.

Locey is one of the most successful coaches in the history of small college football. The five-time Northwest Conference Coach of the Year led the Wildcats to the 2004 NCAA Division III title and in 10 years as the head coach, guided the program to a record of 84-18, including a streak of 41 consecutive wins.

During his tenure as head coach, Locey coached 16 All-Americans, led Linfield to its longest Northwest Conference unbeaten streak (23 games), and continued with the program's NCAA record consecutive winning seasons streak which stood at 50 at the end of 2005.

Locey was associated with Linfield for 23 years and experienced three national titles and 13 conference championships. In 2005 he was named one of the state's top 25 most influential sports people by The Oregonian and was selected the Division III Strength and Conditioning Coach of the Year.

Locey began his Linfield career in 1983 when he accepted the position of defensive coordinator, replacing current Oregon State head coach Mike Riley, who moved on to the Canadian Football League.

The 56-year-old native of Corvallis served as an assistant under a number of Northwest coaching legends, including Ad Rutschman, Bud Riley, Dee Andros, Tom Smythe and Chuck Solberg. His grandfather, Percy Locey, was a college football coach at the University of Denver and the athletic director at Oregon State (1937-47).

In addition to his coaching duties at Linfield, Locey was a full professor in the College of Health and Human Performance. He was an instructor for anatomical kinesiology and the principles of neuromuscular conditioning.

As a sophomore at Corvallis High School in 1970, he had the opportunity to play on the varsity football team that went undefeated and won the state championship. A reserve linebacker, he played special teams while learning under a special group of seniors that included Mike Riley, Gary Beck (OSU's FB Coordinator of Support Services), Don Reynolds, Jerry Hackenbruck and Kerry Eggers.

Locey earned a football scholarship to Oregon State. After starting just one game as a sophomore, he went on to receive Pacific-8 Conference First Team honors as a defensive back in 1976 and second team in 1975. Twice he was singled out as OSU's top student-athlete and received the outstanding senior award his final year. After an attempt at playing professional football in Canada, Locey returned to Oregon and embarked on a career in coaching. He served as a graduate assistant for one season at OSU before being hired by Smythe as a secondary coach at Lakeridge High School in Lake Oswego, Ore.

After four successful years at Lakeridge, Locey returned to his alma mater to coach with Beck while completing his master's degree at the University of Oregon (1983). Locey honed his coaching skills under Rutschman, and was a part of two NAIA national title teams in 1984 and 1986 before leading the Wildcats to the 2004 NCAA crown.

His family includes wife, Susan, and daughters Danika, Braelyn and Rachelle.

Mark Banker and the assistants have developed one of the top defenses in the nation, and it's backed up by the statistics. Banker, in his eighth year as defensive coordinator, has had nearly 50 players earn postseason All-Pac-10 Conference honors. In addition, his last four teams have combined for a staggering 1,785 lost yards.

Banker had only three starters return to his defense in 2009, yet he molded the team to make yet another run at the conference title finishing second. Defensive tackle Stephen Paea was the co-recipient of the Pac-10's Morris Trophy, awarded to the league's top defensive lineman, and linebacker Keaton Kristick joined Paea on the conference's first team. Three other linebackers earned honorable mention all-conference.

In 2008, Banker's defense ranked second in the Pac-10, allowing 312.2 yards per game. There were many highlights to the season, including shutting down the vaunted USC offense in a 27-21 victory in then the No. 1 Trojans only loss of the year. His unit also shut out Pittsburgh in the Sun Bowl, marking the only postseason game where a team was held scoreless. The individual highlights were many including eight defenders earning All-Pac-10 honors. Defensive end Victor Butler, a first team All-Pac-10 player, had a record breaking season for tackles-for-loss and was named the Sun Bowl MVP after making four sacks. Butler (Dallas), defensive end Slade Norris (Oakland), Keenan Lewis (Pittsburgh) Al Afalava (Chicago) and Brandon Hughes (San Diego) were all selected in the NFL Draft.

In 2007, the defense was first against the rush (70.6 yards), fourth for quarterback sacks (3.4 per game), sixth for tackles-for-loss (8.2) and eighth for total defense (306.2). Eleven players earned postseason honors and linebacker Joey LaRocque was drafted by the Chicago Bears. Following the season he and head coach Mike Riley, offensive coordinator Danny Langsdorf and offensive line coach Mike Cavanaugh served on the coaching staff at the Hula Bowl.

His 2006 team led the Pac-10 and finished third for quarterback sacks, was the conference leader for red-zone defense and led the nation for tackles-for-loss yardage (528). The team also produced four all-conference players, including first team honoree Sabby Piscitelli, one of the best safeties to ever play at OSU. Piscitelli went on to be drafted by the Tampa Bay Buccaneers.

In 2005 the team ranked fourth in the Pac-10 for total defense, including leading the conference and finishing 17th for rush defense (108.0). Following the season linebacker Keith Ellison was drafted by the Buffalo Bills.

His 2004 unit led the Pac-10 Conference for pass efficiency defense (100.9/8th in NCAA) and ranked second for passing yards allowed (196.0), total defense (313.3), third down conversion defense (29.4%) and red zone defense (71.7%). This coming after the 2003 team posted similar numbers and rankings.

Banker first stepped onto the OSU campus in 1997 with Riley, and has spent 14 of the last 15 seasons with him. He spent two years at OSU as the secondary coach and recruiting coordinator. The '97 Beavers ranked among the Pac-10's best for interceptions with 16 and Banker helped the program finish sixth in the league for pass defense. Cornerback Basheer Elabee ranked tied for third in the league in '97 for pass breakups (12) and safety Andrae Holland led the league in '98 in the breakup category with 22. Banker also had the opportunity to recruit and coach a young player by the name of Dennis Weathersby, who went on to become an All-American cornerback.

Banker began his coaching career in 1979 as a graduate assistant for his alma mater, Springfield College in Massachusetts. He spent two years at Springfield, one as an offensive line coach and one as running backs coach, before embarking on a full-time career.

His first full-time opportunity came at Cal State-Northridge in 1981. He remained with the Matador program until 1994, serving 11 years as defensive coordinator. When he first arrived at CSUN the program had just 11 scholarships; when he left the program sponsored 54.

In 1995 he moved to the Football Bowl Subdivision (Div. 1) ranks at the University of Hawai'i as the outside linebackers and special teams coach. In 1996 he moved to the University of Southern California, joining a staff that included Riley.

Following his first tenure at Oregon State, Banker went with most of the coaching staff to San Diego to work for the Chargers. He was promoted to defensive coordinator in 2001 after serving two seasons as the cornerbacks coach. As the coordinator the Chargers ranked 11th in the league for total defense and first for rush defense average.

Banker earned three letters as a running back at Springfield, where he graduated with a bachelor's degree in physical education. He is a high school graduate of Plymouth-Carver in Massachusetts, where he earned a total of 11 letters in football, hockey and baseball.

Mark and his wife Debbie have three children; Chris, Jayme and Kelsey.

Bruce Read is in his third tenure as the special teams coordinator at Oregon State, with 2012 marking his fourth consecutive year in Beaver gear. His previous tenures included the 1997-98 and 2004-06 seasons. In addition to his college resume, Read has coached special teams in the NFL for three clubs, 2007-08 with the Dallas Cowboys, 2002-03 with the New York Giants and 1999-2001 with the San Diego Chargers.

Read is considered the best special teams coach in OSU history with numerous Beavers achieving outstanding accomplishments and school records. In 2011, senior James Rodgers became the school's career leader for all-purpose yards with 6,377, including 2,385 via punt and kickoff returns. Punter Johnny Hekker earned Pac-12 honorable mention honors. Jordan Poyer, a senior in 2012, already ranks in the top 10 for kickoff return average at OSU. As a team the Beavers in '11 finished second in the Pac-12, seventh in the NCAA and had the third-best punt return average in program history at 15.1 yards.

In 2010, OSU set a school record for kickoff return average at 26.4 yards (4th in NCAA) and posted the third-best punt return mark at 14.8 yards (6th in NCAA). Sophomore Jordan Poyer ended the year with second-best punt return average in the Pac-10 Conference at 27.8 yards per attempt.

In 2009, Suaesi Tuimaunei earned Pac-10 First Team honors for his play on coverage teams and kicker Justin Kahut was a second team honoree. Kahut led the conference for scoring with 111 points, and James Rodgers finished in the league's top five for punt and kickoff returns.

In 2006, Sammie Stroughter earned third team All-American honors in part for his punt return abilities and placekicker Alexis Serna garnered Pac-10 Second Team. Stroughter set the school record with three punt returns for touchdowns and Serna, at the time, had a school record 106 consecutive made extra point attempts - he eventually made 144 straight. Stroughter's play impressed NFL scouts and he has gone on to a successful NFL career with Tampa Bay.

In 2005 Read coached Pac-10 First Team selections punter Sam Paulescu and Serna. Serna was the '05 recipient of the Lou Groza Award, recognizing the nation's premier kicker, and an Associated Press Second Team All-American. Paulescu has played for five NFL teams and is currently with Washington.

Read spent the 2002 and 2003 seasons as the special teams coach for the Giants. During the '03 season the Giants improved in six of eight statistical special teams categories.

Read accompanied Riley to San Diego in 1999 to coach the Chargers' special teams. San Diego led the NFL in 2001 with a kickoff return average of 26.0 yards - 4.4 yards more than the NFL average for that season. Ronny Jenkins led the league with a 26.6 yards per kickoff return average and scored two touchdowns. For his career with the Chargers, the team consistently rated above the average mark in most statistical categories, and in his first year with the club the team improved 18 spots in the NFL's special teams category to sixth. In 2001, the Chargers were third for special teams and punter Darren Bennett played in the Pro Bowl.

While at Oregon State during his first tenure Beaver special teams units blocked 15 kicks. In 1998 OSU was second in the Pac-10 with a .654 (17-26) field goal percentage and was third for kickoff return average at 23.1 yards. In 1997, kicker Jose Cortez ranked tied for third for field goal conversions with 11.

Read began his coaching career in 1985 working alongside his father, head coach Don Read at the University of Montana. He was named a full-time assistant in 1987, where he would serve the next 10 years as a special teams coach. While at Montana the program broke over 30 records for special teams, and blocked 27 punts and 22 kicks. Montana claimed three Big Sky Conference titles (1993, '95, '96) and won the 1995 NCAA Division I-AA title.

Read is a 1986 graduate of Portland State with a bachelor's degree in social science.

He and his wife Christina, have two sons, Justin and Joshua.

Danny Langsdorf is in his eighth season at Oregon State University in his current capacity as the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach. This is his 10th year overall in the program, serving two years as a graduate assistant coach for Mike Riley during the 1997 and '98 seasons.

The 40-year-old Langsdorf arrived at OSU for his second tenure after spending three years with the New Orleans Saints and during the 2002 season coached with Riley. Langsdorf spent the last two years as assistant wide receivers/special teams coach for the Saints and in 2002 he was the offensive assistant/quality control coach.

Langsdorf's offenses have produced gaudy numbers with seven of the top 11 OSU season performances in total offense coming under his guidance. According to Rivals.com, OSU had the most diversified offense in the nation in the decade of the 2000s; Langsdorf played a big part in that impressive statistic.

The 2011 season featured freshman-redshirt quarterback Sean Mannion having one of the best years in school history as he earned All-America honors after passing for 3,328 yards, the third most in OSU history, the fourth-most for the season in the Pac-12 Conference and the most in the NCAA by a freshman for the season. The Beavers' passing offense ranked 19th in the country overall and for the second straight season with a first-year starting quarterback.

In 2010 Langsdorf guided quarterback Ryan Katz through a season that featured OSU playing the most difficult schedule in the nation. Katz finished eighth in the conference for total offense (201.2 yds). Langsdorf also led one of the nation's premier running backs Jacquizz Rodgers to his third 1,000-yard season and to Pac-10 Conference First Team honors.

The 2009 Beavers played the season finale with the Rose Bowl invitation on the line and ended playing in their fourth consecutive bowl game. Three offensive players landed on the first team All-Pac-10 squad, including the first OSU quarterback ever with the accomplishment - Sean Canfield. The brother duo of James and Jacquizz Rodgers also earned Pac-10 First Team honors. OSU led the league for passing offense (270.8 yards p/g), pass efficiency (141.5) and first downs (278), and was in the top three for scoring offense (31.5) and total offense (410.6 pg). The team also led the nation for red zone efficiency at 96 percent.

In 2008 the team finished second in the Pac-10 for pass offense (249 yds p/g), third for total offense (407.1 p/g) and in the top half overall for pass efficiency and scoring. Individually, the unit featured Pac-10 Offensive MVP Jacquizz Rodgers, the first freshman to ever earn the honor, as well as All-American tackle Andy Levitre. A total of six Beavers on offense earned Pac-10 honors, including three on the first team. The Beavers also won yet another bowl game, capturing the Sun Bowl over Pittsburgh.

The 2007 offense overcame a rash of injuries to finish third in the conference for the second consecutive year with a 6-3 mark. The Beavers once again won their bowl game, defeating Maryland in the Emerald Bowl. Tailback Yvenson Bernard finished his illustrious career sixth in the Pac-10 and second all-time at OSU for career rushing yards with 3,862. Bernard and linemen Roy Schuening and Andy Levitre earned Pac-10 All-Conference accolades. Following the season, Langsdorf coached in the Hula Bowl with head coach Mike Riley, defensive coordinator Mark Banker and offensive line coach Mike Cavanaugh.

In 2006 the Beaver offense enjoyed a balanced attack led by senior quarterback Matt Moore and an experienced returning cast. Bernard and guard Jeremy Perry earned Pac-10 First Team honors, and another seven Beavers earned second team and honorable mention acclaim. Overall the offense finished in the top half of the conference for scoring, passing, pass efficiency, first downs, red zone offense and time of possession. The team also scored 30-plus points in eight games, including six of the final seven.

In his first year as offensive coordinator in 2005, Oregon State broke the school record for total offense for an 11-game season with 4,609 yards, which included an 11-game record for passing with 3,261 yards. Five offensive players in '05 earned postseason honors, including wide receiver Mike Hass who was the Biletnikoff Award recipient and a first team All-American.

Prior to his stint with the Saints, he was an assistant coach with the Edmonton Eskimos of the Canadian Football League. Langsdorf was the Eskimos' offensive coordinator/quarterbacks coach from 2000-2001 after serving as the wide receivers coach in 1999. His guidance helped Edmonton lead the CFL for total yards in 2001 with 6,606.

Langsdorf began his professional career as a player/coach with the Deggendorf Blackhawks of Germany. His college coaching career started in 1996 at California Lutheran University in Thousand Oaks.

During Langsdorf's first two years at Oregon State he worked with the offense, particularly focusing on the tight ends. He was part of the coaching team that transformed the offense from the wishbone to a multiple set.

The native of McMinnville, Ore., was a standout college football student-athlete playing quarterback. He was a member of the Boise State University football team from 1991-93, lettering one season and earning Big Sky Conference All-Academic honors as a sophomore. He transferred to Linfield College in McMinnville after the '93 season and became the Wildcats' starting quarterback for 1994 and '95. He played for his father (Ed) at Linfield and was selected to the All-Northwest Conference Team as a junior after passing for 2,055 yards and 24 touchdowns. He set a then-school record with 493 passing yards against Southern Oregon on Nov. 12, 1994. He was injured much of his senior season, but concluded his two-year career with 2,724 yards, completing 195 of 356 pass attempts.

Ed Langsdorf is a scout with the San Diego Chargers after spending 20 years as a coach at Linfield.

Danny is married to the former Michele Bertrand, a softball standout at Linfield who still appears in the school record books for her pitching prowess. The couple has a 3-year old son named Dawson. Danny graduated from Linfield in 1995 with a bachelor's degree in exercise science.

He donated a kidney to Laurie Cavanaugh, offensive line coach Mike Cavanaugh's wife, in May of 2007.

OSU HIGHLIGHTS

 Malcolm Agnew, RB - true freshman record 223 yards rushing in season opener.

Chris Brasfield is in his second season as Oregon State's running backs coach and in January was selected as one of the top 50 recruiters in the country by 247Sports.

In 2011 the promising season by true freshman running back Malcolm Agnew was derailed by a hamstring injury. Agnew set the OSU freshman record with 223 yards rushing in the season opener in what was the first true freshman in modern history to start at OSU ever at the position.

Brasfield joined the Oregon State staff in March of 2011, after serving the 2010 season as a defensive graduate assistant coach at the University of Oregon. While at Oregon, he worked with the defensive backs, oversaw the defensive interns and student-assistants, evaluated recruiting video and was involved in on-campus recruiting.

Brasfield arrived at Oregon after three-plus seasons at Samford University in Birmingham where he was the running backs coach. While with the Bulldogs he coached (the first two seasons) the school's career rushing leader Chris Evans, who accounted for 4,575 yards and 33 touchdowns. While at Samford he also participated one summer in the NFL Minority Coaching Internship program with the Tennessee Titans.

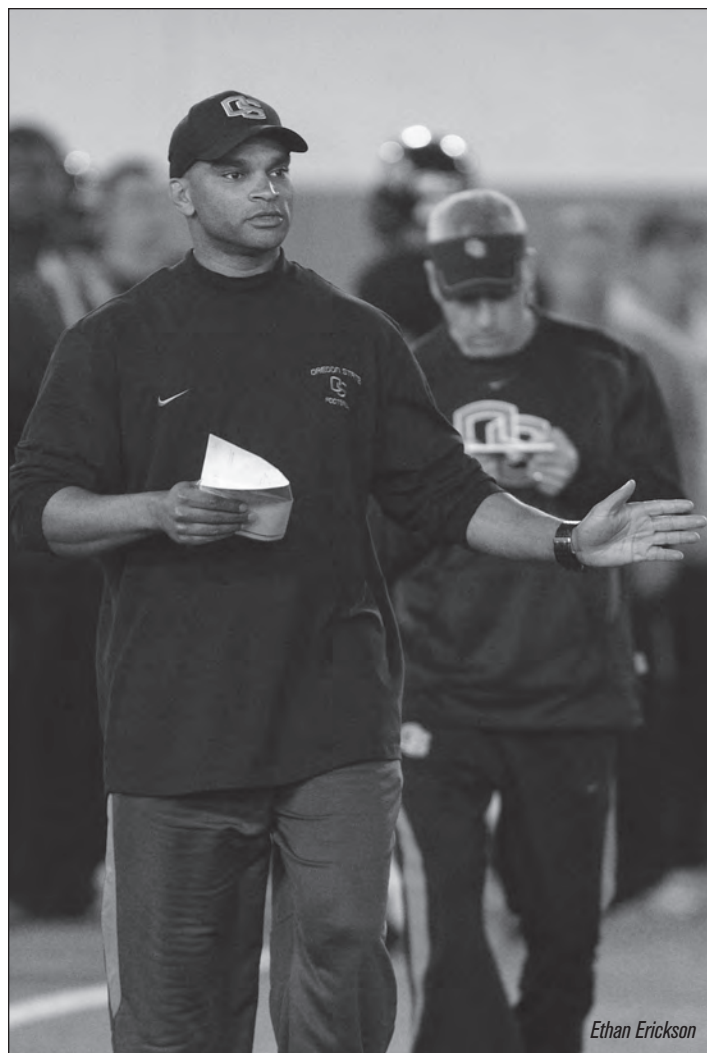

Brasfield's NFL experience isn't limited to his stint with the Titans, he also participated in the internship program with the Oakland Raiders in 2000 and was an area scout for the Tampa Bay Buccaneers (2001-02).

The native of San Antonio, Texas began his coaching career in 1996 as a graduate assistant with wide receivers and special teams responsibilities at Midwestern State in Wichita Falls, Texas. He later served as a wide receivers coach at Southwest Texas State (now Texas State) for the 1999 season and as an offensive graduate assistant coach at TCU during the 2001 preseason.

Brasfield has extensive high school football coaching experience as well, that includes at Fort Worth's Country Day and All Saints Episcopal, and at Chicago Hope Academy in Illinois.

Brasfield played collegiately at TCU in 1994 and '95 as a wide receiver and return specialist after transferring to the Horned Frogs from UTEP where he was a team member from 1991-93. He is a 1996 graduate of TCU with a bachelor's degree in economics and in 2001 with his master's in liberal arts. He helped TCU capture the 1994 Southwest Conference title and played in that season's Independence Bowl. Brasfield received the 1996 Ralph Lowe Sportsmanship Award at TCU.

He is married to the former Sherresa Ward, a 1997 OSU graduate, and the couple have three children, Tyson, Taylor and Truman.

 Markus Wheaton, WR - Honorable Mention All-Pac-12
 James Rodgers, WR - sets school record career receptions (222)
 Pass Offense (286.8) - 19th in NCAA

Brent Brennan is in his second year as assistant football coach for wide receivers after joining the OSU staff following six years at San Jose State in various capacities.

In Brennan's first year in Corvallis he coached James Rodgers, OSU's all-time leader for all-purpose yards and career receptions. Under Brennan's watch, Markus Wheaton put together one of the best seasons ever for a receiver with 986 yards (10th best in OSU history) and 73 receptions (9th). Wheaton, a Pac-12 honorable mention selection following 2011, enters 2012 with a chance to become the school's career leader for receptions and among the school's best ever for yards. Brennan will also have an opportunity to work with dynamic sophomore receivers Brandin Cooks and Obum Gwacham among others.

During his tenure at San Jose State, Brennan held the positions of co-offensive coordinator, tight ends coach, special teams coordinator and recruiting coordinator. He coached three NFL players while with the Spartans - James Jones (Green Bay), John Broussard (Jacksonville) and Kevin Jurovich (San Francisco).

Prior to his arrival at San Jose State, Brennan spent four seasons (2001-04) as the wide receivers/slot back coach at Cal Poly San Luis Obispo, and for his final season was also the team's recruiting coordinator. While at Cal Poly, he coached three NFL players and recruited the 2004 Division I-AA (now FCS) Player of the Year Jordan Beck and 2004 All-American wide receiver Darrell Jones. Cal Poly won the 2004 Great West Conference title.

Brennan began his coaching career in 1996 at Woodside High School in California. His first collegiate experience was as a graduate assistant coach for wide receivers at the University of Hawai'i in 1998. In 1999 he was the graduate assistant coach for tight ends at the University of Washington and in 2000 was the graduate assistant coach on offense for the University of Arizona.

He is a 1996 graduate of UCLA with a bachelor's degree in history. The former UCLA wide receiver lettered two years for the Bruins and played on the 1993 Pac-10 Champion and 1994 Rose Bowl team.

Brennan and his wife, Courtney, have two daughters, Blake and Casey, and one son, Scott. His father, Steve Brennan, played football at San Jose State. His brother, Brad Brennan, was a four-year letterman receiver at Arizona. His cousin, Colt Brennan, was a record setting quarterback at Hawai'i.

 Two linemen earn Pac-10 Honorable Mention

Mike Cavanaugh is in his eighth season as Oregon State's offensive line coach.

Cavanaugh's line has enabled the Beaver offense to be one of the best in the nation during his tenure. He has had three offensive linemen drafted during his OSU career and 2007 draftee Adam Koets earned a Super Bowl ring with the New York Giants while Kyle DeVan started at guard for the Indianapolis Colts in the 2010 Super Bowl. He has also coached OSU All-Americans Andy Levitre (OT) and Jeremy Perry (OG).

The 2011 Beavers were riddled with injuries along the line, but center Grant Johnson earned Pac-12 Honorable Mention honors. The rebuilding season is expected to pay dividends as the line returns a bulk of the '11 team for 2012.

His 2010 line was a roster of youthful players, with the exception of veteran center Alex Linnenkohl. Linnenkohl earned Pac-10 Conference Second Team honors while leading the Beaver offense that featured all-league running back Jacquizz Rodgers. Linnenkohl started 38 consecutive games. Tackle Mike Remmers also garnered postseason honors, earning Pac-10 Honorable Mention.

In 2009 several injuries forced the offensive line to adapt while playing several young linemen. Gregg Peat, the veteran of the group, earned first team All-Pac-10 honors, while center Alex Linnenkohl was an honorable mention selection and tackle Michael Philipp earned true freshman All-America honors. With two walkons in the starting lineup protecting and blocking, quarterback Sean Canfield, running back Jacquizz Rodgers and receiver James Rodgers all earned first team all-league acclaim.

In 2008 his line helped running back Jacquizz Rodgers become the first freshman ever to earn Pac-10 Conference Offensive MVP honors. Andy Levitre, a second round NFL Draft selection of Buffalo, and guard Adam Speer earned all-league honors to go along with Rodgers. His line was one of the best in the nation at protecting the quarterback, allowing an average of one sack per every 21 attempts.

In 2007 his group assisted Beaver running back Yvenson Bernard finish his career sixth in the Pac-10 Conference for career yards with 3,862, second all-time at OSU. Guard Roy Schuening earned first team all-league honors while Levitre earned second team and DeVan honorable mention. Schuening was drafted in the fifth round by the St. Louis Rams while DeVan went the free agent route.

The 2006 team featured sophomore guard Jeremy Perry earning Pac-10 First Team honors, Koets and DeVan garnered second team acclaim, and Schuening and Levitre earned honorable mention. Koets was a sixth round pick of the Giants. Oregon State was the only team in the Pac-10 to have all five of its starters earn postseason honors.

Cavanaugh's '06 group was so highly regarded by the Beaver coaching staff and players that head coach Mike Riley elected to run a dive play for a two-point conversion with 23 seconds remaining in the Sun Bowl, earning Oregon State a 39-38 victory over Missouri.

In 2005 three of "Cavs" offensive linemen earned postseason honors, including Perry as the Pac-10 Co-Freshman of the Year and College Football News Freshman All-America. Running behind the likes of Perry, Bernard was the nation's ninth-best running back in terms of yards per game (120.1).

Cavanaugh, a 1986 graduate of Southern Connecticut University, spent six seasons at the University of Hawai'i as the offensive line coach. He coached five NFL draft selections during his Warrior tenure.

The 49-year-old Cavanaugh helped Hawai'i finish in the top 17 for total offense in each of his last four seasons, including second in 2002 at 495.6 yards per game. Hawai'i was sixth in 2003 at 488.1, seventh in 2001 at 462.7 and 17th in 2004 at 434.0. The Warriors are known for their passing attack, yet during the Cavanaugh tenure the team allowed just one sack on every 26 attempts.

During his career at the Manoa campus, the Warriors played in four bowl games, including a 23-17 victory over Oregon State in the 1999 Oahu Bowl.

Cavanaugh began his coaching career as a graduate assistant at the University of Albany in New York. In 1987 he was the offensive line coach at Wesleyan in Middletown, Conn., and from 1988-91 he was at Alma College in Michigan. While at Alma he served as the offensive coordinator/offensive line coach for the first three seasons and then as the defensive coordinator/linebackers coach for the final year.

Cavanaugh then was the offensive line coach and strength coach at Murray State in Kentucky for the 1992 season, and offensive coordinator and offensive line coach at Sacred Heart University in Connecticut for 1993 and '94. He was the offensive line coach and recruiting coordinator at Ferris State University in Michigan for the 1995 and '96 seasons and helped the program win a pair of Midwest Intercollegiate Conference titles. The '95 team advanced to the NCAA Division II semifinals.

He moved on to the National Football League in 1997 as the assistant offensive line/quality control coach for the San Diego Chargers, a position he held for two years, before joining the Hawai'i staff.

Cavanaugh played college football at New Haven from 1981-82 before transferring to Southern Connecticut State where he earned a bachelor's degree in physical education in 1986. The Wallingford, Conn., native is married to the former Laurie Gilbride and the couple has two sons, Shane and Blair. Laurie's brother is Kevin Gilbride, the offensive coordinator, of the 2008 and 2012 Super Bowl champion New York Giants. Blair is a freshman on the football team.

RECRUITING AREA

California - Central Valley, Fresno & Los Angeles

Rod Perry is in his first year on the Oregon State staff and serves as the team's secondary coach. He joined the staff after 24 seasons in the National Football League.

Perry's credentials are impressive, including playing (Rams) or coaching (Colts) in three Super Bowls. From 2007-11 he was the special assistant to the defense for Indianapolis, earning a Super Bowl championship ring in 2007 as the Colts beat the Chicago Bears. He also was on the AFC championship Colts team of 2010.

His professional coaching career began in 1989 with the Seattle Seahawks (1989-91/secondary) and also has included positions with the Los Angeles Rams (1992-94/secondary), Houston Oilers (1995-96/defensive backs), San Diego Chargers (1997-2001/cornerbacks) and Carolina Panthers (2002-06/secondary). He spent three years on the Chargers' staff under head coach Mike Riley.

In the NFL, Perry coached players that earned eight Pro Bowl honors (including two alternates); Colts safety Bob Sanders was the 2007 Associated Press NFL Defensive Player of the Year; and the 2008 Colts allowed just six touchdown passes - the lowest 16-game total in NFL history.

Perry embarked on his coaching career in 1985 at Columbia University, before moving on to Fresno City College in 1986 and Fresno State in 1987-88.

He is a 1983 graduate of Fresno State University, but played collegiately at the University of Colorado, earning All-Big Eight Conference honors as a senior and Honorable Mention All-America in 1974. Prior to Colorado, Perry attended Fresno City College and was a Junior College All-American. The native of Fresno attended Hoover High School where his jersey number is permanently retired.

Following his college career Perry was a 1975 NFL Draft fourth round selection of the Los Angeles Rams, where he earned 1978 and '80 Pro Bowl honors as a cornerback. Perry, who concluded his NFL career playing the 1983 and '84 seasons with the Cleveland Browns, is a member of the Rams' 40th Anniversary Team and started in the 1980 Super Bowl. He also played his first two seasons with the Rams with OSU and State of Oregon Sports Hall of Fame member, and current OSU broadcaster Steve Preece.

Perry and his wife Patrice have three children, Rodney, Ryan and Miranda. Rodney was a 2001 MLB Draft pick of the Philadelphia Phillies (OF) as well as a member of the Penn State football and baseball teams, and Ryan was a two-year football letterman at the University of Hawai'i.

Joe Seumalo (pronounced Say-u-malo) is in his seventh year at Oregon State and is credited with developing some of the school's best ever linemen.

In 2011, freshmen defensive ends Scott Crichton and Dylan Wynn earned All-America honors. Crichton forced a school record six fumbles while Wynn recovered a school record five fumbles.

Defensive tackle Stephen Paea earned the Morris Trophy in 2010 for the second consecutive year. The award is presented to the Pac-12 Conference's top defensive lineman as voted on by the league's offensive linemen. Paea also was a consensus All-America selection and was invited to play in the Senior Bowl. In addition, end Gabe Miller was selected to the Conference's Honorable Mention team. Both Paea and Miller were members of the 2011 NFL Draft.

Paea burst onto the college football map in 2009 as a junior, earning Pac-10 First Team honors as well as being the recipient of the league's Morris Trophy. Led by Paea, the Beavers rushing defense ranked among the top 25 in the country. His defensive line helped OSU play in its fourth consecutive bowl game.

In 2008, his Beaver defense was the only unit in the NCAA to hold an opponent (Pittsburgh) scoreless in a bowl game (Sun). The defense ranked second overall in the Pac-10 for fewest yards allowed per contest (312.0) and quarterback sacks (39), and fifth for yards lost (456) via tackles-for-loss. His 2008 team also featured two of the best defensive ends in the history of the program, Victor Butler and Slade Norris. Butler earned the Sun Bowl's MVP honor after making five tackles-for-loss, including four quarterback sacks. Butler's 21.5 tackles-for-loss overall in '08 set a school record and he matched the Beaver mark for sacks (12) and forced fumbles (4) for a season. Three of his defenders earned Pac-10 honors, with Butler (Dallas) and Norris (Oakland) being selected in the fourth round of the NFL Draft.

In 2007, the Beavers led the nation against the run (70.6), were fourth for quarterback sacks (3.4 per game), sixth for tackles-for-loss (8.2 pg) and eighth for total defense overall (306.2 yds p/g). The team accounted for more yards (537) lost via tackles-for-loss than any other team. Of the 13 teams the Beavers faced in 2007, 12 gained under their season average for rushing yards. All four of his starters on the Beaver defensive line earned Pac-10 postseason honors.

Seumalo's first year with the program was very successful as he was part of a defensive unit that ranked first in the Pac-10 for quarterback sacks and led the nation for tackles-for-loss yardage (528). Linemen Ben Siegert and Jeff Van Orsow both earned Pac-10 postseason recognition after the two made among the biggest plays in OSU history. Siegert blocked a school record two kicks in the win over Oregon, including the Ducks' game-winning field goal attempt. Van Orsow deflected John-David Booty's two-point conversion attempt to preserve a 33-31 win over USC, ending the Trojans' 27-game conference win streak.

Seumalo arrived at Oregon State after one year as the defensive line coach at San Jose State University. Prior to his stint in the Bay Area, he spent four years as the defensive line coach at Cal Poly University in San Luis, Obispo.

At Cal Poly, he was part of a coaching staff that molded one of the top Division I-AA defenses. In 2004, the nationally-ranked Mustangs were third in the country for rushing defense and ninth in scoring defense yielding just 16.6 points per game. One of his linemen, All-American Chris Gocong, led all I-AA players in quarterback sacks with 17.5 and was second in tackles-for-loss at 21.5. Gocong went on to finish second in the 2004 Buck Buchanan Award voting for the top defensive player in the Football Championship Subdivision classification.

The 2003 Cal Poly defense was 24th nationally in rushing defense yielding 121.1 yards per game and was among the best pass rushing teams with 40 quarterback sacks. Overall, the Mustangs averaged 39 sacks a season in his four years.

A defensive lineman at the University of Hawaii' from 1985 through 1988, Seumalo was a Western Athletic Conference Second Team choice in his senior season. Seumalo went on to play in the Canadian Football League for the Calgary Stampers and Ottawa Roughriders in 1989, the Edmonton Eskimos in 1994 and for the Rhein Fire of NFL Europe in 1995.

The 1995 graduate of Hawaii' began his coaching career in 1994 at Kaiser High School in Honolulu. He also served as a guest coach for the British Columbia Lions of the Canadian Football League in 1996 and the Hawaii' Hammerheads of the Indoor Football League in 1999.

Seumalo moved to the college ranks in 1999 as a graduate assistant at Hawaii', where he was part of a staff that included current OSU offensive line coach Mike Cavanaugh. In his two seasons, he coached the defensive ends and assisted with the special teams.

He and his wife, Karen, have three sons, Andrew, Isaac and Noah, and one daughter, Jessi. Andrew and Isaac are both members of the OSU football team.

 Oregon State, 2012-present - graduate assistant (linebackers)

One of Oregon State's top defensive players in the program's history joined the Beavers in February 2012 as a graduate assistant coach for linebackers.

Bray spent the 2009-11 seasons as the linebackers coach at Arizona State, the last two as full-time after serving 2009 as a graduate assistant. While with the Sun Devils, Bray coached 2010 Pac-10 second team linebacker Vontaze Burfict and 2011 Pac-12 honorable mention linebacker Colin Parker.

Bray started 34 of 49 career games at OSU, including 33 straight, and in 2004 was the Insight Bowl Defensive MVP after making 10 tackles in the victory over Notre Dame. He was a Pac-10 first team selection as a senior and second team as a junior. For his career he made 337 tackles, currently sixth in the OSU record book.

Following his OSU career, Bray signed free agent contracts with the Miami Dolphins and Houston Texans. He would later play for the Hamburg Sea Devils of the NFL Europe in 2007 and began his coaching career with the California Redwoods of the United Football League in 2009.

He was a two-time Great Northern League Defensive Player of the Year at Pullman High School in Washington and earned all-state honors twice. In addition to football, where he played tight end and linebacker, he was an-league athlete in baseball and basketball.

Bray is the son of Craig Bray, a former OSU assistant football coach.

Gary Beck is in his seventh year on the staff at Oregon State and his fifth as Coordinator of Support Services. His role with the Beaver staff includes on-campus recruiting, serving as a liaison with the medical and strength conditioning staff, and assists in the preparation of camps and opponent preparation among other duties.

Beck spent the 2006 and 2007 seasons as a graduate assistant, working with the running backs. He helped coach one of the Beavers' all-time great backs Yvenson Bernard, who finished his career sixth (at the time) in the Pac-10 for all-time rushing yards with 3,682.

Beck is among the most honored coaches in the history of high school football in the state of Oregon. During his prep football coaching career, Beck led Corvallis High School to a pair of state AAA titles (1979, '83) and to a state runner-up finish (1986). Corvallis won the Valley League title five times.

His postseason honors include being named the Valley League Coach of the Year five times and earning the Oregon AAA Coach of the Year three times. He was a head coach in the annual summer Shrine All-Star Game three times.

Beck also served as the head baseball coach at Corvallis for three seasons and the head boys golf coach for 10 years. He started his coaching career in 1976 as the junior varsity baseball coach at Oregon State University. Beck also served as an assistant football coach, freshman boys basketball coach and assistant baseball coach.

He came to Oregon State in 2006 from Redmond High School in Central Oregon after two years as the defensive coordinator. During his entire high school coaching career he served as a physical education teacher.

Beck was a standout athlete at Corvallis High School during the same time frame as head coach Mike Riley. He played free safety and backup quarterback (behind Riley), helping the team to the 1970 state title. He also was a shortstop in baseball and a guard in basketball, assisting the team to the state title in '70.

Beck earned his bachelor's degree in physical education from OSU in 1976 and a master's in education from OSU in 1982. He was a four-year letterman in baseball for the Beavers and lettered on the varsity football team in 1972 as a free safety - his position coach was Riley's father, Bud.

Beck and his wife Vicki have two daughters, LeAnne and Michelle.

Ryan Gunderson is in his third season as the assistant coordinator of support services after a two-year stint as an administrative graduate assistant coach. In his current capacity he coordinates recruiting official visits, tracks incoming student-athletes, maintains a recruiting prospect database and video library, produces weekly recruiting update mailers and handles a majority of the program's social media aspects.

He played quarterback for the Beavers from 2003-2007 and graduated with a degree in construction engineering in December of 2007. The Portland, Ore., native was a two-time Pac-10 Conference Academic All-Conference selection.

Gunderson played in 13 career games passing for 645 yards and two touchdowns. The Central Catholic High School graduate started the 2005 Civil War game in Eugene.

While at OSU he was a member of the Student-Athlete Advisory Committee and was the student speaker at OSU President Ed Ray's Circle Reception for influential donors in 2007.

Gunderson was a prep All-American following his senior year.

Dr. Doug Aukerman joined the Oregon State University athletic staff in January of 2012 as Senior Associate Athletic Director for Sports Medicine. He manages, on a day-to-day basis, the sports medicine program for all of OSU's intercollegiate athletics sports teams.

Aukerman's focus is to ensure that OSU's student-athletes receive the best care possible in all aspects of their athletic training, including injury prevention, treatment and rehabilitation. His goals are to institute new procedures and methodologies into practice in the OSU sports medicine program, monitor medical expenditures and record keeping, and to coordinate the services of team physicians and consultants. He also facilitates the flow of information between physicians and consultants with head coaches, develops and enhances the technical expertise of the medical staff, and identifies highly trained new staff as the need requires.

In addition to his OSU duties, Aukerman is a sports medicine physician employed at Samaritan Health Systems.

Aukerman came to Corvallis after serving as a team physician at Penn State Hershey Medical Center in the Department of Orthopaedics and Sports Medicine starting in 2003. While with the Nittany Lions he worked closely with both the men's basketball and football programs in addition to many of the other teams. He held the positions of Primary Care Sports Medicine Physician, Team Physician and Associate Professor as part of Penn State's sports medicine unit, which services all 29 sports teams as well as area high schools and the general public. He also developed and was the fellowship director of the Penn State Primary Care Sports Medicine Fellowship program, which provides advanced training for physicians. Aukerman also maintained a clinical sports medicine practice in State College with the Milton S. Hershey Medical Center.

Prior to coming to Penn State, Aukerman served as the team physician for varsity athletics at East Tennessee State University in Johnson City.

He earned his undergraduate degree from Vanderbilt University, where he was a student athletic trainer for the football and men's basketball teams. Aukerman went on to attend medical school at the West Virginia School of Medicine, completing his medical degree in 1998.

He completed his residency in family medicine at West Virginia University Hospitals in 2001 and then attended Wake Forest University for fellowship training in sports medicine in 2002.

An avid runner, Aukerman has completed several marathons, half marathons and numerous road races, including the Boston Marathon. He also serves as the medical review officer for NASCAR's drug-testing program.

Aukerman's wife, Melissa, is certified by the American College of Sports Medicine as a Clinical Exercise Specialist and was the head coach for State College Area High School's girls' lacrosse team. The couple have a young daughter, Adele.

Fenk's main sport responsibility is with the football program. He oversees a staff of four full-time employees and several interns.

During his tenure he has led the promotional and communications aspects for the football program, which has experienced its most successful period in modern day history – capturing the 2004 Insight Bowl, 2006 and 2008 Sun Bowls, and the 2007 Emerald Bowl titles. He also led a promotional campaign that eventually earned former placekicker Alexis Serna the 2005 Lou Groza Award and former receiver Mike Hass the 2005 Biletnikoff Award.

Prior to his current responsibility he worked primarily with the men's basketball program, served as editor of the football game-day program and was the primary contact for several Olympic Sports. In addition, he has been the communications coordinator for an NCAA Women's Golf Championships and is co-coordinator for the popular everyday champions program that highlights the accomplishments of current and former student-athletes on and off the fields of play.

Fenk is a member of the College Sports Information Directors of America, the Football Writers Association of America and the Basketball Writers Association of America.

Prior to arriving at OSU he served as the men's sports information director at Montana State University in Bozeman from 1988-90. He began his career as a public relations intern for the Pacific 10 Conference office in Walnut Creek, Calif., and as a press row assistant for the Golden State Warriors of the National Basketball Association. While at the Pac 10 office, he was involved mainly in women's basketball, baseball, volleyball and the 1988 Rose Bowl.

Fenk earned a bachelor's degree from Oregon State University in 1987 and also has an associate of arts degree from Mount Hood Community College (1984) in Gresham, Ore. He is a native of Tillamook, Ore.

GAME 1 — OREGON STATE VS. SACRAMENTO STATE

SACRAMENTO STATE 29
OREGON STATE 28

Reser Stadium
 Corvallis, Ore. • Sept. 3, 2011 (OT)

CORVALLIS — Freshman running back Malcolm Agnew made perhaps the best debut in the history of the Oregon State program in the Beavers' 2011 opener against Sacramento State.

The diminutive back from Chesterfield, Mo., rushed for 223 yards and three touchdowns, but it wasn't enough to carry the Beavers to a victory in a 29-28 loss in overtime to the Hornets.

Agnew's 223 yards rushing was the ninth-best single-game total in Oregon State history and his three touchdown rushes helped the Beavers come from a 21-6 deficit to even the score midway through the fourth quarter.

Agnew scored his first touchdown at the 12:44 mark of the fourth quarter, then pulled the Beavers to within two on a 4-yard touchdown carry less than five minutes later. Sean Mannion, also appearing in his first career game, found Markus Wheaton in the end zone on a two-point conversion to tie the game.

OSU threatened late in the fourth quarter, but a 27-yard field goal attempt by Trevor Romaine hit the right upright as time expired, forcing the seventh overtime game in Oregon State's history.

Agnew continued his hot day in the Beavers' only overtime period, gaining all of the Beavers' 25 yards. First, he ran for an 8-yard gain, then went up the middle for a 17-yard score.

The Hornets, however, answered with a scoring drive of their own as quarterback Jeff Fleming found Brandyn Reed on a 6-yard touchdown strike. Sacramento State, which was playing a Football Bowl Subdivision opponent for the 10th consecutive season, went for two after an Oregon State timeout.

Fleming tossed a fade to the right side of the end zone, finding Reed again for the two-point conversion and the victory.

Agnew was one of the eight true freshmen to play, and became the first to start a season opener at running back.

Mannion, in relief of Ryan Katz to start the second half, made his biggest throw of the afternoon on a 69-yarder to Wheaton in the fourth quarter that eventually led to Agnew's second rushing touchdown of the game.

GAME 2 — OREGON STATE AT WISCONSIN

OREGON STATE 0
#8 WISCONSIN 35

Camp Randall Stadium
 Madison, Wis. • Sept. 10, 2011

MADISON, Wis. - Sean Mannion threw for 244 yards with Jordan Bishop accounted for a career-best 98 but the Beavers dropped a 35-0 decision to No. 8 Wisconsin at Camp Randall Stadium.

Mannion finished the game 25-of-38 in the most action he has seen in two seasons - one redshirt year - at Oregon State. Five of his 25 passes went to Bishop, whose 98 yards receiving surpassed his previous high of 86 against Arizona State in 2010.

The quarterback also found Markus Wheaton for 83 yards on eight receptions, but the Beavers failed to find the end zone.

The Beavers' defense remained stout throughout the first half; the Badgers managed just three yards rushing in the first quarter and 82 entering halftime en route to a 21-0 lead.

Conversely, however, Wisconsin allowed the Beavers just 23 yards rushing, with Jordan Jenkins taking the team lead at 20.

Feti 'Unga led the Beavers with nine tackles, while Anthony Watkins and Lance Mitchell posted seven apiece. Rusty Fernando recorded his first career sack in the loss.

Russell Wilson was 17-of-21 for 189 yards and three touchdown strikes for Wisconsin. Two of his touchdown passes went to Jacob Pedersen, who led the Badgers with 80 yards receiving. Nick Toon caught a third and finished with 69 yards overall.

Montee Ball, who had 118 yards rushing, scored two touchdowns on the ground, both in the second half, to cap off Wisconsin's offensive afternoon.

GAME 3 — OREGON STATE VS. UCLA

UCLA 27
OREGON STATE 19

Reser Stadium
Corvallis, Ore. • Sept. 24, 2011

CORVALLIS, Ore. — Sean Mannion passed for 287 yards and a touchdown in his first career start and James Rodgers made his 2011 debut with five receptions but the Beavers could not overcome an early deficit in a 27-19 loss to UCLA in the Pac-12 opener for both teams at Reser Stadium.

Mannion passed for his first career touchdown in the third quarter when he found Jordan Bishop on a 45-yarder where the wide receiver tight-roped the sideline for the score. However, a subsequent two-point conversion attempt, which would have tied the score at 21, was thwarted by the Bruins.

That play was the last chance at the end zone for the Beavers, who gave up a 1-yard touchdown run to UCLA's Anthony Barr with 6:15 remaining in the fourth quarter. The point after was blocked by Andrew Seumalo — his second of the day after a block on a 39-yard field goal attempt tying the school record — leaving the Beavers down eight with half the quarter to go.

OSU drove deep into UCLA territory but a fourth-down pass to Rodgers with less than three minutes remaining was broken up, effectively giving UCLA (2-2, 1-0 Pac-12) the win.

Rodgers made his debut after sitting out the first two games of the season due to rehabilitation for an injury suffered in 2010. His first reception of the year was a 31-yarder from Mannion in the first quarter that helped set up an eventual 25-yard field goal by Trevor Romaine.

Rodgers finished the game with 76 yards, second only to Markus Wheaton, who ended the day with eight catches for 83 yards. Bishop, whose 45-yard touchdown catch was the longest reception of his career, finished with 69 yards on three receptions.

Mannion ended the game 24-for-40. He played the entire game after coming off the bench in the first two games. Grant Enger joined him as a new starter at left guard, giving the Beavers 17 players who made their first career starts in the young season.

The Beavers (0-3, 0-1) fell behind 21-3 after three consecutive touchdowns, the second two coming in the second quarter.

But Jordan Poyer proceeded to energize the nearly 45,000 in attendance at Reser with an 85-yard punt return for touchdown with just 13 seconds remaining in the second quarter. He took the punt at OSU's 15, went up the middle and found himself down the left side of the field untouched for the score. It was the second-longest punt return in Oregon State history and earned him Pac-12 Special Teams Player of the Week.

GAME 4 — OREGON STATE AT ARIZONA STATE

OREGON STATE 20
#25 ARIZONA STATE 35

Sun Devil Stadium
Tempe, Ariz. • Oct. 1, 2011

TEMPE, Ariz. — Sean Mannion set an Oregon State single-game record with 40 pass completions in 66 attempts, throwing for 341 yards in the process, but the Beavers dropped a 35-20 decision to Arizona State at Sun Devil Stadium.

Mannion surpassed Erik Wilhelm's 39-for-64 effort in 1986 against Michigan that previously sat in the Oregon State record books. He threw for more than 200 yards for the third consecutive game.

For the second consecutive game, he threw a touchdown strike, this time to senior James Rodgers on a 5-yard pass in the third quarter. It was Rodgers' first score of the season and 17th of his career through the air, moving him one shy of tying Robb Thomas for fourth in team history.

Terron Ward, who scampered in on a 10-yard rush, held Oregon State's other touchdown, it coming in the first half as the Beavers rushed out to a 13-0 lead. It was the first score of Ward's young career.

Oregon State's Jordan Poyer grabbed two interceptions and Anthony Watkins had a third for the Beavers as OSU forced four Arizona State turnovers. It was the most since Oregon State forced both UCLA and Washington into four turnovers in 2008.

Arizona State, down 13-0 entering the second quarter, scored the next 21 points to take an eight-point advantage over the Beavers. Oregon State had jumped out to a 6-0 lead on field goals by Trevor Romaine, and then a 13-0 lead on Ward's 10-yard run.

But Arizona State quarterback Brock Osweiler broke up Oregon State's scoring with a 17-yard pass to A.J. Pickens early in the second quarter. Five minutes later, he connected on a 24-yard touchdown strike to Gerrell Robinson that put the Sun Devils up for good.

Rodgers' first score of the season pulled OSU to within one, 21-20, early in the third quarter. The Beavers, however, were unable to keep Arizona State off the board from that point on, with running back Cameron Marshall scoring on consecutive runs in the third and fourth quarters, to bring the game to its final 35-20 tally.

Markus Wheaton was Mannion's favorite receiver, leading the Beavers with 11 receptions for 116 yards. All told, of Mannion's 40 pass completions, at least two went to nine different receivers.

GAME 5 — OREGON STATE VS. ARIZONA

ARIZONA 27
OREGON STATE 37

Reser Stadium
Corvallis, Ore. • Oct. 8, 2011

CORVALLIS, Ore. — Sean Mannion threw for 267 yards and two touchdowns and Jovan Stevenson rushed for a career-high 99 yards and a score as the Oregon State football team defeated Arizona, 37-27, at Reser Stadium.

Lance Mitchell had a fumble recovery, interception and pass breakup to pace the Oregon State defense as the Beavers snapped a four-game losing streak to improve to 1-4 on the year and send Arizona to a 1-5 record.

The Oregon State defense held on after the OSU offense helped pace the Beavers to a 27-6 lead entering halftime. The Beavers scored 27 points in the second quarter on two field goals by Trevor Romaine, a 1-yard score by Stevenson, a punt block for touchdown by Clayton York and a 3-yard touchdown reception by Joe Halahuni.

It all combined to help the Beavers get their first victory of the season.

The 27 second-quarter points were the most in a quarter for the Beavers since they posted 28 in the second quarter against Arizona in 2003. It came after a scoreless first quarter and proved to be hugely beneficial as Arizona outscored Oregon State, 21-10, in the second half.

The Wildcats pulled to within three, 30-27, late in the fourth quarter, threatening to take the lead. But Mannion connected with Halahuni for the tight end's second score of the game on a 2-yard touchdown with 4:05 remaining in the game.

Arizona and quarterback Nick Foles had two consecutive drives stopped deep in Oregon State territory late in the fourth quarter. Foles had 378 yards passing, but was able to throw for just one score in the loss.

Mannion, meanwhile, threw for more than 200 yards for his fourth consecutive game, accomplishing a feat achieved by Sean Canfield, Matt Moore, Derek Anderson and Jonathan Smith over the last decade.

Mannion completed 32-of-41 passes attempted, with a team-high six going to Markus Wheaton, upping his total to 38 this season. Stevenson, Halahuni and Jordan Jenkins all had five for OSU.

While Foles threw for 378 yards, he was also picked off twice, once by Mitchell and another by Michael Doctor, who recorded his first career interception. The Beavers also managed eight pass breakups, including a game-high four for Jordan Poyer, who also led Oregon State with eight tackles.

The Beavers also kept their pressure on Foles and the Arizona running game. OSU tallied four tackles for loss, forced a fumble and recovered two fumbles. Arizona's leading rusher was Keola Antolin, who, while tallying one rushing score, only carried the ball six times for 28 yards.

GAME 6 — OREGON STATE VS. BYU

BYU 38
OREGON STATE 28

Reser Stadium
Corvallis, Ore. • Oct. 15, 2011

CORVALLIS, Ore. — Jordan Poyer returned an interception for touchdown and Sean Mannion passed for 306 yards but it wasn't enough to overcome BYU as the Beavers dropped a 38-28 decision to the Cougars at Reser Stadium.

Poyer picked off a Riley Nelson pass with 1:18 remaining in the first half and returned it 51 yards for his second career defensive score. It tied the game at 14 after the Cougars had gone up 14-0 to start the game.

Poyer ended the game with the interception — tying him for the Pac-12 Conference lead — and two pass breakups in addition to 171 yards on seven kick returns. His effort, however, wasn't enough to help the Beavers overcome 24 second-half points by BYU to just 14 for the Beavers.

Mannion threw for 306 yards — his highest single-game total at Reser Stadium — and capped off his afternoon with a 59-yard pass to Brandin Cooks that pulled the Beavers to within three, 24-21, with two minutes remaining in the third quarter.

Mannion ended the day 27-for-43 with one score and two interceptions.

BYU scored 14 consecutive points after Mannion found Cooks. The Cougars opened the fourth quarter with a 2-yard pass from Nelson to JD Falslev that made it 31-21. Seven minutes later, Nelson threw another pass, this one 8 yards to Kaneakua Friel for the 38-21 advantage.

OSU (1-5 overall) added a final touchdown with 23 seconds remaining when Jovan Stevenson found the end zone.

Nelson ended the afternoon passing for 217 yards and three touchdowns, finishing 17-for-27. He also led the Cougars (5-2) in rushing with 87 yards on 12 attempts.

Cody Hoffman caught nine passes for 162 yards to lead all receivers; Markus Wheaton was tops on the Beavers with eight pass receptions for 104 yards.

Neither team was particularly fine offensively. The Beavers committed four turnovers — two via interceptions and two via fumbles. BYU, meanwhile, threw an interception and fumbled the ball twice, one of which was recovered by the Beavers. Scott Crichton cradled that fumble for the first recovery of his career.

Oregon State also managed its fifth block on a field goal attempt of the season as Crichton managed to get a hand on a 50-yard attempt. The blocked kick was eventually returned by Anthony Watkins 60 yards to the BYU 30 as time expired in the first half.

GAME 7 — OREGON STATE VS. WASHINGTON STATE

OREGON STATE 44
WASHINGTON STATE 21

CenturyLink Field
Seattle, Wash. • Oct. 22, 2011

SEATTLE – Sean Mannion threw for four touchdowns, Malcolm Agnew rushed for 104 yards and a score and Markus Wheaton grabbed 99 yards through the air as the Beavers defeated Washington State, 44-21, at CenturyLink Field.

The Beavers were prolific offensively, finishing with 551 yards of total offense, the most since posting 567 at Washington State in 2009. Mannion provided a majority of the offense, completing 26-of-34 passes for 376 yards – his sixth consecutive game with more than 200 yard through the air.

He completed touchdown passes of 31 yards to Jordan Jenkins and 12 yards to Brandin Cooks in the first half as the Beavers jumped out to a 24-14 advantage at the break.

Agnew, who rushed for more than 100 yards for the second time this season, also scored on a 3-yard rush during the half, his fourth carry of the season to reach the end zone, leading the Beavers.

Oregon State (2-5 overall, 2-2 Pac-12) did not let up in the second half as Mannion threw two more touchdown strikes – 25 yards to Joe Halahuni and 18 yards to Clayton York. OSU out-scored the Cougars (3-4, 1-3) 20-7 during the second half.

The Beavers' 44 points was the most in a game since Oregon State tallied 42 at Washington State in 2009. Defensively, the Beavers were also stout, allowing just a little more than 300 yards of total offense, including 83 on the ground. Dylan Wynn recovered two fumbles, giving him five on the year, a new Oregon State single-season record.

Scott Crichton forced both of Wynn's fumble recoveries and OSU finished with four sacks, tying a single-game high for the season. Taylor Henry had his first career multi-sack game with two.

Wheaton was tops amongst the game's receivers with five catches for 99 yards, just shy of reaching the 100-yard plateau for the fourth time this season. All told, Mannion found 11 different receivers in the win.

Mannion found Jenkins on a 31-yard swing pass for the game's first score seven minutes in, and the Beavers jumped out to a 21-14 lead after Cooks' score and Agnew's rushing touchdown.

Trevor Romaine closed out the game's offense in the first half with a 26-yard field goal for the Beavers' 10-point lead.

GAME 8 — OREGON STATE AT UTAH

OREGON STATE 8
UTAH 27

Rice-Eccles Stadium
Salt Lake City, Utah • Oct. 29, 2011

SALT LAKE CITY, Utah – Markus Wheaton caught his first touchdown pass of the season and Sean Mannion surpassed 200 yards passing for the seventh straight game but the Beavers dropped a 27-8 decision to Utah at Rice-Eccles Stadium.

Wheaton caught six passes on the day and Mannion found him in the end zone early in the fourth quarter for a 3-yard score. Wheaton had come into the game with a team-leading 51 receptions but no touchdowns.

Mannion attempted 49 passes, completing 27, and finished with 231 yards passing. Only he, Sean Canfield (2009) and Derek Anderson (13 games in 2003) have thrown for 200 or more yards in seven straight games over the last decade.

Mannion, however, was picked off three times and sacked six times. The Utes also forced two fumbles, recovering one.

The Beavers were forced to punt six times with Johnny Hekker tallying 315 yards. He pinned the Utes inside the 20 three times, had four punts of more than 50 yards and in the process broke the OSU single-game record for average yards at 52.5. He broke Dainard Paulson's previous record of 51.2 set in 1959 against Oregon.

Wheaton's score got the Beavers on the board and less than three minutes later, OSU (2-6 overall, 2-3 Pac-12) was granted two points on a safety when a Utah offensive lineman was found to be holding in the end zone.

Those eight points, however, were not enough to overcome a 24-point deficit to Utah (4-4, 1-4). The Utes led 3-0 after the first quarter and scored 21 points in the second quarter.

Utah quarterback Jon Hays passed for 62 yards and completed 6-of-14 passes attempted. Two went for touchdowns in the second quarter – a 35-yarder to Dres Anderson and a 3-yarder to DeVonte Christopher.

Sandwiched in between the two passing scores was a 6-yard touchdown rush by John White. The running back finished the game with 205 yards rushing on 35 carries.

James Rodgers surpassed the 200 catch mark for his career with seven against Utah. He now has 206 for his career and is one of three Oregon State players in history to reach the 200-catch plateau.

Brandin Cooks, set a single-game career record with five receptions, and Jordan Bishop added five catches for the Beavers in the loss.

GAME 9 — OREGON STATE VS. STANFORD

#3 STANFORD 38
OREGON STATE 13

Reser Stadium
Corvallis, Ore. • Nov. 5, 2011

CORVALLIS, Ore. — James Rodgers caught six passes, including his 18th career for touchdown, in Oregon State's 38-13 loss to third-ranked Stanford at Reser Stadium.

His six receptions gave him 212 for his career, one shy of tying James Newson for second-most at Oregon State and eight behind record-holder Mike Hass. His second-quarter score came from 15 yards out and cut Stanford's lead to 14-7 with 5:25 to play in the half.

Rodgers' score was redshirt freshman quarterback Sean Mannion's 11th touchdown pass of the season as the Pleasanton, Calif., native was 18-of-30 on the day. He threw for 252 yards in the loss, marking his eighth consecutive game with at least 200 yards passing. Only Derek Anderson (13 straight in 2003) can claim a longer streak than Mannion over the last decade.

The Beavers maintained a close game until the third quarter as the Cardinal led 17-7 at halftime. But Oregon State ran just 21 plays in the second half — finishing with 47 overall — and Stanford out-scored the Beavers 21-6 in the half.

Andrew Luck passed for 206 yards and three touchdowns and Stepfan Taylor rushed for 95 yards in the win for Stanford, which improved to 9-0 overall and 7-0 in Pac-12 Conference play. The Beavers, meanwhile, dropped to 2-7 overall and 2-4 in Pac-12 games.

The Cardinal took a 14-0 lead early in the second quarter after being held scoreless in the first quarter — the Beavers being the only team this season to hold Stanford scoreless this season. But Jeremy Stewart opened the game's scoring with a 2-yard rush three seconds into the second quarter.

Luck extended Stanford's lead to 14-0 when he found Griff Whalen on a 17-yard pass at the 7:51 mark.

Oregon State answered with Mannion's 15-yard touchdown pass to Rodgers less than three minutes later.

Stanford made it 17-7 with 35 seconds remaining in the first half when Eric Whitaker nailed a 31-yard field goal. OSU had an opportunity to make it 17-10 but a 50-yard field goal attempt by Trevor Romaine was blocked with seven seconds remaining.

That did little to deter the Beavers early in the second half as Malcolm Agnew scored his fifth touchdown of the season on a 2-yard carry. It came at the 11:53 mark but was the last score of the day for OSU as the point after touchdown was blocked and the Cardinal scored the game's last 21 points.

GAME 10 — OREGON STATE AT CALIFORNIA

OREGON STATE 6
CALIFORNIA 23

AT&T Park
San Francisco, Calif. • Nov. 12, 2011

SAN FRANCISCO — Trevor Romaine connected on field goals from 32 and 46 yards out, respectively, in Oregon State's 23-6 loss to California at AT&T Park.

Romaine's field goals marked the only scoring of the game for the Beavers, who saw their five-game win streak at Cal snapped. He hit on a 32-yarder less than five minutes into the game, then nailed the 46-yard field goal with two seconds remaining in the second quarter.

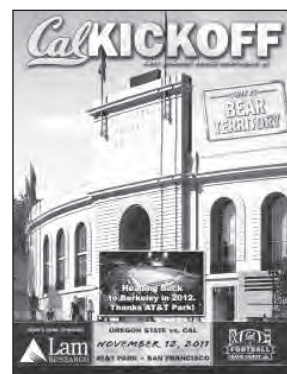

Despite getting 247 passing yards from quarterback Sean Mannion — his ninth straight game of 200 or more yards — Oregon State could not get over the goal line. He was 25-for-39 in the loss, connecting six times with senior wide receiver James Rodgers.

By catching six passes, Rodgers moved two shy of tying Mike Hass for the most in an Oregon State career. Rodgers has 218.

Zach Maynard threw for 128 yards and one touchdown for California, which improved to 6-4 overall and 3-4 in Pac-12 Conference play. The Beavers dropped to 2-8 overall and 2-5 in league play.

Isi Sofele carried the ball 23 times for California, and the running back finished with 190 yards on the ground. He also scored on a 20-yard run with 10:01 remaining in the third quarter.

Rashaad Reynolds and Anthony Watkins each made 10 tackles to pace the Beavers defensively. Lance Mitchell intercepted his second pass of the season in the first quarter.

GAME 11 — OREGON STATE VS. WASHINGTON

WASHINGTON 21
OREGON STATE 38

Reser Stadium
Corvallis, Ore. • Nov. 19, 2011

CORVALLIS, Ore. — It was a big day for James Rodgers, Jovan Stevenson, Sean Mannion and the 17 Beaver seniors who were playing their final games at Reser Stadium as members of the Oregon State football team.

Rodgers caught four passes to become Oregon State's career receptions leader, and Mannion and Stevenson had big afternoons as the Beavers defeated Washington, 38-21, on Senior Day at Reser Stadium.

Rodgers surpassed Mike Hass with 222 catches, two more than the former record holder. One of his four catches went for a 6-yard touchdown in the first quarter as the Beavers went into the first break of the game with a 14-7 lead.

Stevenson, meanwhile, scored the game's final three touchdowns — all in the fourth quarter — as the Beavers shut down Washington's offense in the second half and salted the game away with an offense that moved the ball generously in the second half. The touchdowns were the third, fourth and fifth of the season, as he joined Malcolm Agnew as Beavers with three scores in a game to that point in the season.

Stevenson didn't lead the Beavers in rushing — that went to Markus Wheaton, who had 66 yards on three carries — but averaged 4.1 yards per rush on 10 carries. Terron Ward, who started the game, carried the ball 13 times for 43 yards, including a season-long 29-yard rush in the first quarter.

Mannion became just the fifth Oregon State quarterback to throw for more than 3,000 yards in a single-season, joining Derek Anderson (three times), Sean Canfield, Jonathan Smith and Matt Moore. He tossed for 339 yards against Washington, and has the program's sixth-best single-season mark with 3,033.

Mannion found Rodgers on a 6-yard pass with 7:30 left in the first quarter to tie the game at seven after Washington's Austin Seferian-Jenkins had scored on a 4-yard pass less than four minutes into the game.

The tie game didn't last long, however, as Mannion threw another 6-yard touchdown pass with 2:52 remaining in the first quarter. Micah Hatfield was the recipient of the throw, who not only caught his first career touchdown, but his first career pass.

Trevor Romaine connected on a 24-yard field goal as time expired in the first half, giving the Beavers a 17-14 lead entering halftime. Seferian-Jenkins caught his second score of the game earlier, and Romaine's 15th field goal of the season gave the Beavers the lead for good.

Washington accumulated 158 yards of total offense in the first half and the OSU defense remained stout in the second half, allowing the Huskies 157 in the final two quarters for a final total of 315.

GAME 12 — OREGON STATE VS. OREGON

OREGON STATE 21
#10 OREGON 49

Autzen Stadium
Eugene, Ore. • Nov. 26, 2011

EUGENE, Ore. — Oregon State quarterback Sean Mannion passed for 299 yards and three touchdowns but it wasn't enough to overcome No. 10 Oregon in a 49-21 loss to the Ducks at Autzen Stadium.

The game marked the 115th contest between the teams in the Civil War, presented by the Northwest Ford Dealers and PacificSource Health Plans. It is the longest running rivalry west of the Rocky Mountains.

Oregon ran 102 plays and gained 615 yards, jumping out to a 28-7 halftime lead and eventually pushing its advantage to 42-7. Mannion threw touchdown passes to Kevin Cummings — the first of his career — and Brandin Cooks to pull the Beavers closer in the fourth quarter.

Mannion ended the game completing 27-of-44 passes and his 299 yards passing gave him 3,328 on the season, the third-best single-season mark in team history.

The Beavers held on early, tying the game at seven when Mannion found a wide open Jovan Stevenson in the flat for a 58-yard touchdown pass. It was the third-longest scoring play of the season for the Beavers, and it came at the 11:08 mark of the second quarter.

The Ducks, however, scored the next 35 points to take control of the game.

Cummings led the Beavers (3-9 overall, 3-6 Pac-12) with 63 yards receiving, and he set up his 19-yard touchdown in the fourth quarter with a 26-yard catch that set a career-long for distance.

Stevenson (58 yards) and Cooks (56) were close behind Cummings in terms of yardage.

Markus Wheaton had two catches for 39 yards, giving him 986 on the season, the 10th-best single-season mark in team history.

Darron Thomas was 27-of-40 for 305 yards for Oregon (10-2, 8-1), throwing for four touchdowns. He found four different receivers in the end zone: David Paulson, DeAnthony Thomas, Colt Lyerla and Kenjon Barner.

LaMichael James was Oregon's leading rusher with 142 yards on 24 carries. He found the end zone on a 1-yard run less than four minutes into the game.

Defensively, the Beavers were led by both Scott Crichton and Feti 'Unga, who had 12 and 13 tackles, respectively. For Crichton, it set a career-high, surpassing the 11 he had against UCLA earlier in the season.

BOWL CHAMPIONSHIP SERIES

The Bowl Championship Series (BCS) is a type of "Super Alliance" that was designed in 1997 to match the two top-rated teams in a national championship and to create competitive match-ups in the four other BCS games. The BCS is composed of three variables that comprise a team's standing: the Harris poll, the ESPN/USA Today Coaches poll, and a series of five computer rankings.

2009 — LAS VEGAS BOWL — OSU VS. BYU

BYU 44
OREGON STATE 20

Sam Boyd Stadium

Las Vegas, Nev. • Dec. 22, 2009

Weather — 51 degrees, Cloudy, W-37-44 (North)

(AP) - Max Hall threw for 192 yards and three touchdowns leading No. 15 BYU past No. 16 Oregon State 44-20 in the Las Vegas Bowl.

Hall gave the Cougars their third win in five straight bowl appearances in the Sin City and ended the Beavers' run of five consecutive bowl wins.

Hall threw a 25-yard touchdown pass to Luke Ashworth, a 17-yard scoring strike to Dennis Pitta and a 15-yard TD pass to Manase Tonga. He had 139 yards passing in the first half.

Tonga added an 18-yard rushing touchdown, and Harvey Unga finished with 76 yards rushing and a TD for BYU (11-2).

Oregon State (8-5) scored on 1-yard runs by quarterback Sean Canfield and Jacquizz Rodgers, and a 31-yard pass to Damola Adeniji from Ryan Katz. Adeniji led all receivers with seven receptions for 102 yards.

Canfield completed only four passes in the first half as the Beavers struggled to sustain drives. He finished 20 for 41 for 173 yards and an interception.

The normally dependable Rodgers fumbled for the first time in his college career in the first quarter, on his 621st touch, and Matt Bauman returned it 34 yards for the go-ahead score. Officials used replay to see whether Canfield's checkdown toss to Rodgers was a lateral or a forward pass, and upheld the touchdown.

Oregon State finished with three turnovers, including a fumble by Rodgers' brother James.

Winds gusted to 50 mph at Sam Boyd Stadium and temperatures fell to 30 degrees. The gusts were so strong that one of Oregon State's punts traveled untouched only 6 yards.

2008 — SUN BOWL — OSU VS. PITTSBURGH

OREGON STATE 3
PITTSBURGH 0

Sun Bowl

El Paso, Texas • Dec. 31, 2008

Weather — 48 degrees, Clear, W-9 (South-Southwest)

Three points, 20 punts and 10 sacks. Go ahead and say it was unsightly, but Oregon State coach Mike Riley saw nothing short of a masterpiece.

In the lowest-scoring major bowl game in a half-century, the Beavers shut down No. 20 Pittsburgh 3-0 in the Sun Bowl on Justin Kahut's 44-yard field goal.

"That's the game we were in," Riley said. "We played that game. We ended up winning it. Some people will call it ugly, but I can't."

The defensive struggle went on all day. Pitt kicker Connor Lee tried a 58-yard field goal in the closing minutes but the ball, helped by a steady wind, dropped just short of the crossbar.

"I had more confidence in a 58-yard field goal try than going for it on fourth-and-8," Pitt coach Dave Wannstedt said. "I wanted to give our team a chance. I really thought he could kick it."

Not since Air Force and TCU played to 0-0 standoff in the Cotton Bowl on Jan. 1, 1959, had a bowl produced so few points. It was also the lowest-scoring Sun Bowl since a scoreless tie in 1940 between Catholic and Arizona State.

"We were three downs and out way too much," Riley said. "We put a terrific burden on our defense and we put a lot of burden on the punt team. They came through. That's the game we were in and we played that game. We ended up winning it."

The Beavers (9-4) improved to 5-0 in bowls since Riley began his second stint as their coach in 2003. Kahut provided the only points with his kick shortly before halftime.

Riley liked the way his team rebounded from a 65-38 loss to rival Oregon that denied Oregon State a Rose Bowl berth.

"Guys sulked for a bit," Beavers' defensive end Victor Butler said. "But in the end you've got to get your head in the game. You've got to go play football because the other team wants to play and win just as much as you do."

Riley stood at the interview table and added: "That is well said."

Pitt (9-4), making its first bowl appearance since the 2004 season and the first under Wannstedt, led the Big East in scoring this season, averaging 29.3 points per game. The Panthers managed just 178 total yards.

"We couldn't get anything on offense started at all," standout tailback LeSean McCoy said. "We played horribly."

There was no sign of offense in El Paso, not with McCoy held to 85 yards rushing after averaging 116.9 yards per game this season. Quarterback Bill Stull was 7-for-24 for 52 yards with one interception.

"When you talk about our defense, that was a beautiful performance against a running back that some said was one of the best in the country," Riley said.

The Beavers also won without their spectacular brothers, tailback Jacquizz Rodgers and receiver James Rodgers, both out with shoulder injuries.

"We have a lot of athletes who can step in," quarterback Lyle Moevao said. "Without those guys, it was definitely a big loss but we were still able to manage the game."

Reserve tailback Jeremy Francis had 76 yards rushing and Moevao was 21-for-42 for 193 yards passing with two interceptions. The Beavers finished with 273 total yards. The Panthers finally got a spark early in the fourth quarter when T.J. Porter returned a punt 36 yards to Oregon State's 42.

But three plays later, the big return was wasted because Butler, who had four sacks, stripped Stull and recovered the fumble.

"It's an understatement to say how much he impacted this game," Riley said. Oregon State led 3-0 after Kahut connected on his field goal with 2:18 remaining before halftime. He later missed a 37-yard attempt midway through the third period.

The Beavers came up empty on the best touchdown opportunity by either team. Officials ruled tight end John Reese was out of bounds on an apparent 9-yard TD reception 10 seconds before the break.

"This is the game it turned out to be," Riley said. "It didn't have to be 3-0. We missed some red-zone opportunities."

The call was upheld after a replay review, and on the next play, Pitt linebacker Scott McKillop -- the Big East defensive player of the year -- intercepted Moevao's pass in the end zone.

"We left a couple of plays on the field today," McKillop said. "We just didn't come out in the second half and set the tone."

2007 — EMERALD BOWL — OSU VS. MARYLAND

OREGON STATE 21
MARYLAND 14

AT&T Park

San Francisco, Calif. • Dec. 28, 2007

Weather — 47 degrees, Cloudy

The first meeting between the two programs in the sixth annual Emerald Bowl at AT&T Park proved to be entertaining, but both teams showed some rustiness after the long layoff from the regular season. The game was played in misty turning to rainy conditions as it progressed.

The Beaver defense, which had been fierce in the first quarter allowing just 16 points all season, was surprised as the Terrapins hit for two touchdowns. The Terps went 80 yards on the opening drive of the game culminating in Chris Turner's 9-yard pass to Isaiah Williams.

Oregon State answered on the following drive that saw starting quarterback Lyle Moevao being injured and forcing Sean Canfield, who had been out since Nov. 3 at USC, into the game. The lefty tied the score with a 14-yard pass to James Rodgers. Maryland would regain the lead when Turner hit Darrius Heyward-Bey for 63 yards — that was the last of the scoring for the ACC bunch.

Canfield worked the team down the field in the last two minutes of the half before Yvenson Bernard, who would earn offensive MVP of the game, scored from two yards out to tie the game at 14-14.

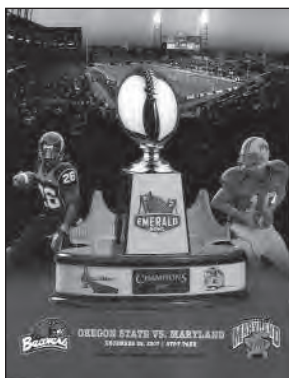

Neither team mounted much offense in the third quarter until Beaver punt returner Taylor Kavanaugh posted a 26-yard return to the Terps 36 to set up what proved to be the winning score. Bernard took a first down handoff and went 29 yards and two plays later approached the goal line only to fumble, but it was pounced on by Rodgers for the score.

Maryland had just two possessions in the fourth quarter and when the Beavers took over with 6:24 left in the game, it was one of the most memorable drives in school history. The drive didn't amount to any scoring, but OSU picked up six first downs in forcing Maryland to use its final two timeouts.

"I'm really proud of our football team for fighting through a strange game in a lot of ways," coach Mike Riley said. "I thought the defense got stronger and stronger as the game went on. ... Offensively, I couldn't describe what the formula is — just getting the ball to Yvenson Bernard and James Rodgers as much as possible."

Bernard finished with 177 yards and linebacker Derrick Doggett earned defensive MVP honors with eight tackles, including a 14-yard sack.

Riley led OSU to its fourth consecutive bowl win — all under Riley's watch.

2006 — SUN BOWL — OSU VS. MISSOURI

OREGON STATE 39
MISSOURI 38

Sun Bowl

El Paso, Texas • Dec. 29, 2006

Weather — 48 degrees, Sunny

Oregon State wanted nothing to do with overtime.

Yvenson Bernard pushed into the end zone on a gutsy 2-point conversion run after Joe Newton caught a 14-yard touchdown pass with 22.1 seconds left, and No. 24 Oregon State beat Missouri 39-38 in the 73rd annual Sun Bowl. The win was OSU's third consecutive bowl victory.

The Beavers trailed by 14 points with 12:08 to go before rallying for their eighth victory in nine games. Bernard's 7-yard reception had cut the gap to seven with 6:02 to go.

Tony Temple had 194 yards, four short of the Sun Bowl record, on 20 carries with two touchdowns and Chase Daniel threw two touchdown passes for Missouri (8-5).

Senior quarterback Matt Moore threw four touchdown passes, a Sun Bowl record, and ran for a fifth for Oregon State. He was 5-for-7 for 55 yards on the winning drive, set up after Sammie Stroughter's 38-yard punt return to the Oregon State 46.

Bernard's conversion run came after Missouri called a timeout to freeze kicker Alexis Serna before the extra point. Instead, it gave the Beavers time to persuade coach Mike Riley to go for two - and the gamble paid off.

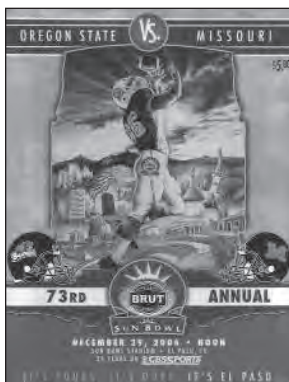

Missouri had seven plays of 29 yards or longer, including Danario Alexander's 74-yard touchdown catch and Temple's 65-yard run. Missouri responded after Oregon State scored on its opening drive of the second half for a 21-17 lead.

Tommie Saunders' 29-yard TD catch from tight end Chase Coffman off a lateral gave the lead back to Missouri and Temple's 65-yard untouched touchdown run seemingly put the Tigers in control at 31-21 with 5:58 in the third.

The victory was the latest in a series of nail-biters for Oregon State, which beat Hawai'i and Oregon by a combined five points in the last two regular-season games.

Moore was 31-for-54 for 356 yards and set a school record of 182 passes without an interception before getting picked off by Brandon Massey in the third quarter. Oregon State retained possession on the play after Massey fumbled.

The longest season in OSU history ended with the Beavers posting the second most victories ever for the program with 10. Oregon State ended the year No. 21 in the final Associated Press Poll, and No. 22 in the final USA Today Poll and Bowl Championship Series standings.

2004 — INSIGHT BOWL — OSU VS. NOTRE DAME

OREGON STATE 38
NOTRE DAME 21

Bank One Ballpark

Phoenix, Ariz. • Dec. 28, 2004

Weather — Indoors

PHOENIX, Ariz. — For the second time since 2000 Oregon State and Notre Dame met in a bowl game in the Valley of the Sun. For the second time Oregon State made a statement with a 38-21 win over the Fighting Irish in the 16th annual Insight Bowl at Bank One Ballpark. The game was televised nationally by ESPN and featured an Insight Bowl attendance record of 45,917.

The Beavers, led by senior quarterback Derek Anderson, scored on two of their first three possessions and would eventually build a 21-0 lead midway through the second quarter. Notre Dame fought back to within 24-14 before Anderson put together arguably the best drive of his four-year career. The Scappoose native took OSU on a 90-yard, 12-play drive that concluded on a 1-yard touchdown pass to tight end Joe Newton, the last of two touchdown scores for the sophomore.

The win capped a rags to riches season for the Beavers and fourth-year head coach Mike Riley. OSU began the season 1-4, but rallied to win six of the final seven contests and end the year as one of the hottest teams in the nation.

"It was a big game for us," Anderson said. "To bounce back from the start that we had in this season and finish like this, it's huge."

Anderson, the offensive MVP of the Insight Bowl, tied a bowl record with four touchdown passes and turned in the sixth best passing mark in the history of the event with 358 yards. He connected with eight different receivers and was responsible for all but 20 yards of the entire offensive output.

Oregon State's first score was set up by a 52-yard punt return by freshman Sammie Stroughter. The Beavers began the drive at the Irish 27. Four plays later Anderson connected with senior George Gillett for a 12-yard score.

A second freshman set up the Beavers for their next score as Derrick Doggett blocked D.J. Fitzpatrick's punt and recovered on the four-yard line. Anderson found Newton on the second play, after being sacked, to push the lead to 14-0.

The Beavers third score came as Anderson found reserve tight end Dan Haines for 11 yards. Notre Dame desperately responded to stay in the game late in the half, scoring with 56 seconds remaining, on a 13-yard pass from quarterback Brady Quinn to tight end Anthony Fasano.

The second half began with cornerback Aric Williams intercepting Quinn as the Irish were putting together a nice drive that could have closed the gap. Williams' interception led to an Alexis Serna 38-yard field goal to make the score 24-7.

Notre Dame did close the gap to 24-14 after Jerome Collins blocked Sam Paulescu's punt. The Irish's best drive of the game went 49 yards on six plays and was capped by a Darius Walker five-yard touchdown run.

The third quarter ended with OSU leading 24-14 and Notre Dame appeared to have momentum on its side, before Anderson's game breaking 90-yard drive.

Senior tailback Dwight Wright concluded the Beaver scoring on a 2-yard run with 3:19 remaining. "This team has gained a lot of notoriety for Oregon State," Riley said after the game. "Big games against the two defending national champions (LSU and USC), we didn't win 'em but we certainly had opportunities.

"The big win against our arch rival (Oregon), a nice bowl win, beating all the Northwest schools. I think this team made its mark under some trying times."

For Oregon State it was its third bowl victory in its last four postseason appearances. Junior linebacker Trent Bray, who had a game-high 10 tackles, was named the defensive MVP and Newton earned the ESPN Capital One Player of the Game honor.

2003 — LAS VEGAS BOWL — OSU VS. NEW MEXICO

OREGON STATE 55
NEW MEXICO 14

Sam Boyd Stadium

Las Vegas, Nev. • Dec. 24, 2003

Weather — 58 degrees, Cloudy, Wind Calm

LAS VEGAS, Nev. — Mike Riley made his bowl game debut as a head coach a successful one, as Oregon State dominated New Mexico, winning 55-14.

The Beavers' roster was dotted with student-athletes from Las Vegas, and the thought of returning home for a bowl game was exciting, judging from the team's performance.

The Beavers opened the game with the ball and went 83 yards in nine plays for the first score. Quarterback Derek Anderson threw a 34-yard strike to tailback Steven Jackson, one of the Las Vegas boys, for the first of Jackson's bowl game-record-tying five touchdowns. Kirk Yliniemi booted a 21-yard field goal on the next drive, giving OSU a 10-0 lead. New Mexico had no first downs at this point.

The Lobos used a Brand Ratcliff 40-yard kickoff return to set up their only score of the first three quarters. Quarterback Casey Kelly and Hank Baskett hooked up on a 27-yard pass to make the game 10-7, but that was about it for the Lobo offense for the half.

Oregon State ended the opening quarter with a 17-7 lead, as Anderson hit receiver Mike Hass for 42 yards on the final play of the opening stanza. The Beaver offense had already rolled up 204 yards and 10 first downs, while the Beaver defense had allowed just one first down.

The Beavers made it 24-7 midway through the second quarter on the first of four rushing touchdowns, this one a three-yard romp. Less than two minutes later, thanks to a UNM fumble, Jackson went 11 yards to make the score 31-7, the eventual halftime score.

The first half statistics were staggering. OSU had 17 first downs, UNM one. Total yardage was 308-35.

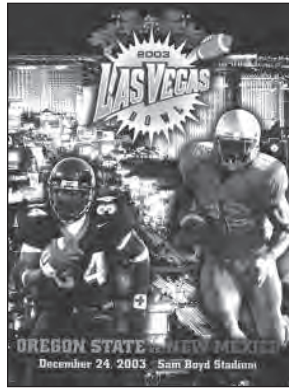

The Beaver defense once again stymied the Lobo offense on the first possession of the second half, and the Beaver offense extended the margin on its first drive. Jackson accounted for 48 of the 59 yards on the drive, including a six-yard score.

The teams traded punts for most of the remaining third quarter, before Yliniemi's 31-yard field goal made it 41-7 at the end of three.

Jackson added another one-yard score early in the fourth quarter to end his night and ultimately his OSU career — he announced after the game that he was forgoing his final year of college eligibility and entering the NFL Draft. Jackson ended the game with 149 yards rushing. Anderson also sat on the sideline for the rest of the game after passing for 322 yards and two touchdowns.

The teams traded touchdowns to end the game. Reserve quarterback Adam Rothenfluh finished the scoring with a 19-yard pass to Josh Hawkins.

The Beaver defense, led partly by Las Vegas natives Richard Seigler, Jonathan Pollard and Lawrence Turner, limited the Lobos to 127 yards of offense.

2002 — INSIGHT BOWL — OSU VS. PITTSBURGH

PITTSBURGH 38
OREGON STATE 13

Bank One Ballpark

Phoenix, Ariz. • Dec. 26, 2002

Weather — 46 degrees, Clear, Wind Calm

PHOENIX, Ariz. — What a difference a half makes.

After heading to the locker room following the first half tied 10-10 with the No. 24 ranked Pittsburgh Panthers, things fell apart for Oregon State in the second half. The Beavers wound up dropping a 38-13 decision to Pitt at the Insight Bowl before 40,533 fans at Bank One Ballpark.

Despite the defeat, it was another very successful season for Oregon State. The Beavers made their third trip in four years to a bowl game and OSU finished the season with eight victories (8-5), which tied for the fourth most season wins in school history.

Pittsburgh opened the scoring by taking the opening kickoff and moving 69 yards in six plays to score when wide receiver Larry Fitzgerald made a diving finger tip reception of a 40-yard touchdown pass from Rod Rutherford with 11:50 left in the quarter. The Panther touchdown amounted to only the third offensive TD allowed by the Beavers' defense during the first quarter of play in the 2002 season.

Oregon State bounced right back with a quick touchdown of its own to quickly tie the contest. It took the Beavers less than two minutes to knot the score at 7-7. OSU moved 72 yards in only three plays. On a second-down play from the OSU 35-yard line, the Beavers' James Newson caught a quick pass from Derek Anderson and appeared to be tackled after about a 10-yard gain. Instead, Newson's knee did not go down and he broke free for a 65-yard TD run down the sideline to tie the game.

Neither team had a scoring threat again until the second quarter. On OSU's fourth possession of the game, the Beavers drove from their own 10 to Pitt's 32 where the drive stalled. Kirk Yliniemi then booted a 50-yard field goal to give OSU a 10-7 lead with 7:56 left in the half. For Yliniemi, the 50-yard field goal matched his career long successful kick.

It appeared OSU would take its 10-7 lead to the locker room, but a great play by Pitt's special teams of downing a punt on OSU's 3-yard line led to an eventual field goal. Unable to move away from the goal line, the Beavers' Carl Tobey punted from the end zone and Pitt got the ball at OSU's 32-yard line with 1:07 to play. Pitt reached OSU's 27-yard line and David Abdul booted a 45-yard field goal as time ran out in the first half.

Pitt's Tez Morris intercepted an Anderson pass during OSU's first possession of the second half and returned the pick 37 yards to the OSU 23-yard line to change the entire momentum of the game. It was the only interception thrown by Anderson. Three plays later Rutherford scored on a 1-yard run for a 17-10 Panther lead.

The backbreaker for OSU came later in the third quarter when the Panthers' Shawn Robinson returned a punt 66 yards for a touchdown to give Pitt a 24-10 lead with 3:26 remaining in the period.

The Beavers had a good chance to get back into the game on their next possession. OSU moved from its own 30 to the Pitt 7-yard line for first and goal. However, Anderson got sacked on first down (loss of 7 yards) and the Beavers were held to a 31-yard field goal by Yliniemi. The field goal by Yliniemi was his 15th consecutive successful boot of the season, which tied the OSU career record.

Pittsburgh added a pair of touchdowns in the fourth quarter when the Beavers gave the Panthers great field position as a result of failing on a fourth down attempt and a fumble.

One huge problem for OSU in the game was its inability to establish the run. Steven Jackson entered the game as the nation's No. 4 leading rusher and the Beavers' season record holder, but he finished the game with only 34 yards.

2001 ('00 season) — FIESTA BOWL — OSU VS. NOTRE DAME

OREGON STATE
NOTRE DAME41

Sun Devil Stadium

Tempe, Ariz. ■ Jan. 1, 2001

Weather — 63 degrees, Clear, W-5 (West)

TEMPE, Ariz. — Oregon State played its best and most complete football game of the season in routing No. 10 Notre Dame 41-9 in the 30th annual Tostitos Fiesta Bowl in the Beavers' first-ever appearance in a BCS Bowl.

Oregon State totally dominated the Irish from the opening kickoff. The Beavers led only 12-3 at halftime and Notre Dame was fortunate the margin wasn't larger as OSU rolled up 278 yards in the first half, including 246 through the air, to 98 for the Irish.

The Beavers scored on three of their four possessions in the first half. On the one possession OSU did not score, the Beavers drove 83 yards in nine plays, only to be stopped on fourth down at the Notre Dame 1-yard line. Patrick McCall was thrown for a 4-yard loss on fourth down as OSU was attempting to stretch its 6-0 lead. As it was, the Beavers took only four plays to score on their next possession, which started at their 10-yard line. After a 14-yard pass to T.J. Houshmandzadeh and a 2-yard run by Ken Simonton, Jonathan Smith connected on a 74-yard TD pass to Chad Johnson boosting OSU's lead to 12-0.

Notre Dame had generated only eight yards in total offense on six offensive plays in the first quarter, a quarter dominated by the aggressive Beaver defense.

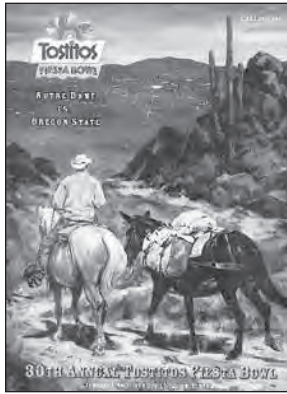

It took a major mistake by OSU for Notre Dame to avoid being shut out in the first half. The Beavers had the Irish pinned on their own 2-yard line facing a third down-and-31 situation. OSU forced an incomplete pass, but the Beavers' Calvin Carlyle was flagged for a late hit on the play and the 15-yard personal foul carried an automatic first down. The Irish took advantage of the break and marched to OSU's 12-yard line before kicking a 29-yard field goal as time expired in the first half.

The third quarter will be remembered forever by Beaver fans, as OSU pummeled Notre Dame with a 29-point blitzkrieg. It all started innocently enough as the Irish forced the Beavers to punt for the first time in the contest after holding OSU on the opening series. The floodgates opened after that. In the span of eight minutes the Beavers accounted for 29 points.

On Notre Dame's first possession of the second half, Darnell Robinson sacked Irish quarterback Matt LoVecchio on second down and forced a fumble in the process. Two plays later Smith connected on a 23-yard TD pass to Houshmandzadeh. Next came a bizarre punt return for a TD as Houshmandzadeh returned a Notre Dame punt from OSU's 27, was hit at the 50 and fumbled, only to have teammate Terrell Roberts field the ball in the air and race 45 yards for a TD.

Smith passed 4-yards to Johnson for another score and Simonton, who had 85 yards rushing on 18 carries, scored the final Beaver TD on a 4-yard run.

Smith was named the Offensive Player of the Game after completing 16 of 24 passes for 305 yards and 3 touchdowns. Robinson was named the Defensive Player of the Game after recording seven tackles, a sack, two tackles for loss, a pass breakup and a pass interception.

1999 — O'AHU BOWL — OSU VS. HAWAII

HAWAII 23
OREGON STATE 17

Aloha Stadium

Honolulu, Hawaii • Dec. 24, 1999

Weather — 79 degrees, Fair, W-15-25 (South-Southwest)

HONOLULU, Hawaii — Oregon State fans invaded the Islands in mass as the program made its first bowl appearance since January of 1965. The Beavers had the unenviable chore of playing the University of Hawaii's Rainbow Warriors in the O'ahu Bowl at UH's home field — Aloha Stadium.

Oregon State looked like it was on its way to its first postseason victory since the 1962 Liberty Bowl, when it took its first possession 79 yards in 10 plays to score on Ken Simonton's 1-yard run with 8:23 left in the opening quarter. He rushed for 30 yards on OSU's first play from scrimmage and accounted for 40 yards on the first TD drive.

OSU got a big break late in the first period and didn't capitalize on the opportunity, which might have been one of the big plays of the game. OSU had to punt on its second possession and UH's Avion Weaver fumbled after a hit by Terrence Carroll, who also recovered the ball at the Hawaii 14-yard line. The Beavers were unable to move the ball and Ryan Cesca's 42-yard field goal sailed right, seemingly giving Hawaii new confidence.

Hawaii took advantage of OSU's only turnover of the game to get on the scoreboard. Jonathan Smith fumbled a snap from center at the Beavers' 24 yard line. The Rainbows were stopped at the 8-yard line and settled for a 26-yard field goal by Eric Hannum. Hawaii tried an onside kick following the field goal, but the Beavers recovered for great field position at the Hawaii 49.

Once again, Cesca missed on a field goal attempt from 31 yards out. The Warriors took over on their own 20 and put together their only long drive of the game, moving 80 yards in eight plays to score on a 9-yard pass from Dan Robinson to Channon Harris, putting Hawaii up 10-7. OSU tied the contest on the final play of the first half, a 37-yard field goal by Cesca, following an interception by Calvin Carlyle.

Hawaii scored 10 points in the third quarter and the Beavers were held scoreless as they could not sustain a drive. The Rainbows moved out to a 23-10 lead with 2:58 left in the game on a 35-yard field goal by Hannum and appeared to have the game locked up at that point. However, OSU's offense finally caught fire and Smith moved the Beavers 81 yards in 10 plays in only 1:31 elapsed time as Simonton scored on a 13-yard draw play to narrow the margin to 23-17.

Then, the biggest play of the game occurred following the Beaver touchdown. OSU executed an onside kick and Roddy Tompkins recovered at the Hawaii 48. But, an official threw a flag indicating the Beavers had not lined up properly and voided the recovery. The next onside kick went out of bounds and Hawaii was able to run out the remaining 1:27.

Simonton was named OSU's outstanding player of the game after rushing for 157 yards, scoring two touchdowns and accounting for 182 all-purpose yards.

1965 ('64 season) — ROSE BOWL — OSU VS. MICHIGAN

MICHIGAN	34
OREGON STATE	7

Rose Bowl

Pasadena, Calif. • Jan. 1, 1965

Despite this visual evidence to the contrary, the Rose Bowl can be anything but a bed of roses. Oregon State found that out on January 1, 1965, losing to Michigan 34-7. The No. 8-ranked Beavers had gone into the game as 11-point underdogs to the No. 4-ranked Wolverines, but OSU did go into the game with some optimism.

Early on, Oregon State looked like it might pull off a stunner. After a scoreless first quarter, the Beavers took a 7-0 lead on a Doug McDougal 5-yard pass from Paul Brothers, but Michigan led 12-7 at halftime and the lead would grow.

Leading up to the game, there was controversy. When OSU and Oregon rejoined the Athletic Association of Western Universities for the 1964 season, schools didn't have time to juggle their schedules for a full round-robin slate of conference games. The Beavers and USC both finished with 3-1 records in league play, the selection of the Rose Bowl representative was left up to a vote of the conference's faculty athletic representatives; OSU had an 8-2 overall mark to USC's 7-3. The decision didn't sit well with many in and around Los Angeles and the Beavers took quite a bit of grief from the press and public during their visit.

Oregon State head coach Tommy Prothro left the school shortly after the game to become the head coach at UCLA.

1962 — LIBERTY BOWL — OSU VS. VILLANOVA

OREGON STATE

Philadelphia Stadium

Philadelphia, Pa. • Dec. 15, 1962

With the temperature 17 degrees at kickoff, only 17,048 fans made their way to the enormous arena on the south side to see the No. 17-ranked Beavers beat hometown Villanova 6-0. Wrote the late George Pasero of The Oregon Journal: "The Liberty Bowl was televised, of course, with an estimated audience of 27 million in saloons and living rooms a lot more comfortable than the 17,048 human ice cakes who attended."

Both teams switched from cleats to tennis shoes prior to the game due to frozen footing.

The only score came on Terry Baker's 99-yard run with 9:54 left in the first quarter, and Oregon State spent the rest of the afternoon holding off the Wildcats. OSU's undersized line was pushed around between the 20-yard lines and Villanova outgained the Beavers 309-299, but Oregon State came up with four fumbles and two interceptions.

Baker wasn't all of Oregon State's offense, but it was close. He rushed for 137 yards and passed for 123. His performance clinched his Heisman Trophy.

1957 ('56 season) — ROSE BOWL — OSU VS. IOWA

IOWA 35
OREGON STATE 19

Rose Bowl

Pasadena, Calif. • Jan. 1, 1957

Oregon State played in its second Rose Bowl game, but its first at the Rose Bowl. The Beavers' previous appearance was in 1942 in the only Rose Bowl not played in Southern California — the game was moved to Durham, N.C. because of World War II.

A crowd of 100,000 witnessed 10th-ranked Oregon State victimized by some early mistakes and the Beavers lost 35-19 to third-ranked Iowa. OSC head coach Tommy Prothro and the Beavers had already had one crack at Iowa, losing to the Hawkeyes 14-13 on Iowa's home field in early October; it was the first Rose Bowl to pair teams that had already played during the regular season. Wrote the late George Pasero of The Oregon Journal after talking to the Beavers after the game: "All the opinions ended up at the same place. OSC tackling was the worst of the season and no one seemed able to explain why."

Halfback Joe Francis rushed for 73 yards and passed for another 130 yards to lead Oregon State's offensive attack. Back Sterling Hammock had four receptions for 65 yards.

1942 ('41 season) — ROSE BOWL — OSU VS. DUKE

OREGON STATE	20
DUKE	16

Duke Stadium
Durham, N.C. ■ Jan. 1, 1942

GAME NOTES

This game produced two important firsts. It was OSU's first-ever trip to the famous New Year's Day classic, and it remains the only Rose Bowl played outside Pasadena, which has prompted sports historians over the years to prefix the bowl's famous name with the word "displaced."

The reason was due to the blackout of the West Coast that had followed the attack on Pearl Harbor. The host stadium was Duke University's home field in Durham, N.C., with the undefeated Blue Devils picked as 3-1 favorites. Oregon State's victory came as a big surprise to Eastern and Southern sportswriters, with Sid Feder of the Associated Press writing, "Probably never in the quarter century history of the Tournament of Roses had such a completely overlooked betting underdog jumped up to beat the big fellows. Oregon State came East to the wonderment of most of Dixie as to why the Westerners were going to show up at all."

Beaver boss Lon Stiner, at 38 and the youngest head coach in Rose Bowl history, had prepared his team with a passing attack that dazzled the North Carolinians. Jack Gunether of UPI wrote, "The Beavers skipped and slammed and flicked passes with an ease and finesse which completely baffled the record crowd."

For Oregon State, the star was Dan Durdan, who passed and ran Oregon State College to victory. He was awarded Player of the Game honors and later inducted into the Rose Bowl Hall of Fame. Beaver greats Bob Dethman and George Zelick also added points. Duke blocking back Tommy Prothro also played magnificently.

In one of the great ironies in the annals of college football, Prothro would one day become Oregon State head coach and take the Beavers to not one but two Rose Bowls. The football practice field at OSU bears his name. Returning home, the victorious Stiner and company were feted at a special Rose Bowl Banquet with Oregon Gov. Charles Sprague one of the principal speakers. In 1985, the entire squad was inducted into the State of Oregon Sports Hall of Fame. In 1988 they entered the OSU Athletic Hall of Fame. OSU fans at the time considered the game to be the greatest win in school history.

The winning score came in the third quarter when Gene Gray scored on a 68-yard pass from Bob Dethman.

GAME NOTES

HONOLULU, Hawaii — Power generated by the Oregon State College Beavers overcame the tricky plays and passing attack of Hawaii's Rainbows and gave the boys from the Northwest a 39-6 victory in a Pineapple Bowl game that was finished under arc lights.

The Beaver victory climaxed an island invasion that started with Oregon State defeating the Healan town team on Christmas day.

The Beavers rolled up three touchdowns in the first period against Hawaii, and added another in the third and two more in the fourth. Hawaii scored in the second period. Showers late in the game handicapped Hawaii's passing attack.

Bob Olson, Morrie Kohler, Ken Dow and George Peters scored a touchdown by power drives in the first five minutes of play, with Olson passing to Peters for the final six yards. A few minutes later, Bob Dethman returned a Hawaii punt 12 yards to the 29-yard line, from where Bob Dethman cracked center for 18 yards and Jim Kisselburgh ambled 11 yards through tackle to score.

Vic Kohler intercepted one of Roy Strohl's passes in the same period, lateralled to John Tsoutsouvas who was down on the Oregon State 49. John Hackenbruck made 18 on an end-around. Kohler added five at the line, and then Joe Tomich passed to Hackenbruck in the end zone.

Hawaii drove to Oregon State's 12-yard line early in the second quarter before the Beavers held, but Kisselburgh's kick was short and Hawaii scored on two plays, with Strohl passing from Oregon State's 47 to Cal Campbell on the 19 and then to Nolle Smith in the end zone. Oregon State battled down to the Hawaii 1-yard line where Dow fumbled as the half ended.

OSU AWARD WINNERS

OREGON STATE UNIVERSITY SPORTS HALL OF FAME

The Oregon State University Sports Hall of Fame was established in 1988 in an effort to honor and preserve the memory of those student-athletes, teams, coaches, and members of the athletic staff who have contributed in an outstanding and positive way to the promotion of the Oregon State University athletic and academic program.

To be considered for this high honor, there are seven criteria that must be met:

1. If a nominee was an athlete, the person must have completed his or her eligibility at least five (5) years prior to induction.
 2. If a student-athlete, the person must have earned two Varsity "O" letters.
 3. If a coach, athletic administrator, or athletic staff member, the person must have either earned a Varsity "O" letter at Oregon State University or have been on the staff for at least five (5) years and have become inactive at OSU.
 4. The records of the person considered should be so outstanding that there would be little question as to the qualifications necessary for induction.
 5. Consideration will be given for personal conduct in sports and the personal contribution to the idea of sport.
 6. Consideration will be given to teams who have contributed in a very outstanding and positive way.
 7. Criteria and qualifications will be based upon the nominees' participation while attending or serving Oregon State University.
- However, accomplishments after leaving the University may be an important part of consideration.

TERRY BAKER
OREGON STATE'S HEISMAN
1962 - 2012

TERRY BAKER
1962 HEISMAN TROPHY WINNER

OREGON STATE'S ALL-AMERICANS

The following individuals were selected first, second or third team All-America by UPI, Associated Press or the Sporting News. Years selected in bold.

HERM ABRAHAM • 1916

Herm Abraham, was Oregon State's first All-American in the sport. He led the Aggies to an upset at Michigan State in 1915. He earned All-American honors by the Newspaper Enterprise Association in 1916, after lettering three years.

TERRY BAKER • 1962

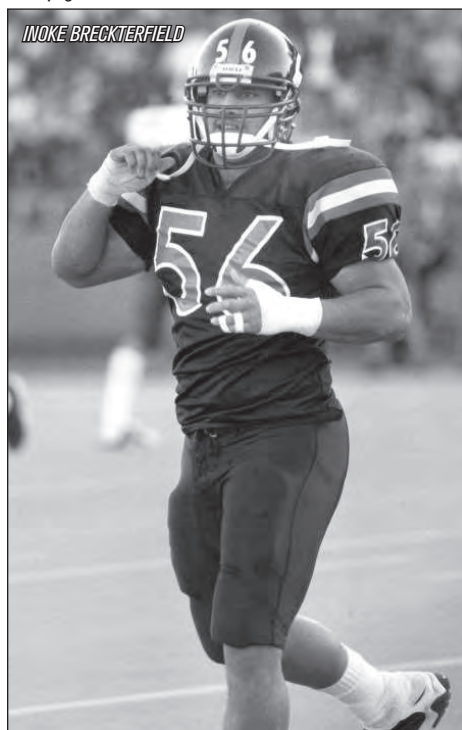

The Heisman Trophy winner was the nation's most heralded athlete after leading OSU to a 1962 Liberty Bowl victory over Villanova. Terry Baker was a first team All-American in 1962, and in addition was named the Sportsman of the Year by Sports Illustrated, Helms Foundation Award recipient, AP, UPI, and the Sporting News Player of the Year to name just a few. The two-time Oregon State team MVP played in the 1962 College All-Star Game. Baker also excelled in basketball where he helped the 1963 team to the Final Four. He was inducted into the State of Oregon Sports Hall of Fame in 1980. His number 11 is the only number retired at OSU. He is (as of June 2009) the only individual to win the Heisman Trophy and play in the Final Four. Baker was the first individual from the West Coast to win the Heisman. He was drafted first overall in 1963 by the Los Angeles Rams of the NFL.

TED BATES • 1958

Ted Bates earned All-American acclaim as an offensive lineman in 1958, and was also named an All-Pacific-Coast Conference and All-Coast selection. He played in the 1957 Rose Bowl and was the recipient of the 1958 Hayward Award for the top amateur athlete in the state. Bates played in the 1958 East-West Shrine and Hula Bowl games. He played four NFL seasons with the Chicago Cardinals. Bates was a 1996 inductee into the State of Oregon Sports Hall of Fame.

INOKE BRECKTERFIELD • 1997 & 1998

Inoke Breckterfield is one of Oregon State's top all-time defensive lineman. He concluded his career by being selected a third-team All-American in 1998. Breckterfield played in the Hula Bowl after being selected first team All-Pac-10. He won the conference's prestigious Morris Trophy, given to the league's top defensive lineman. The Honolulu native ended his career as the school's all-time leader for quarterback sacks with 19.5 and tackles-for-loss with 55.5. Breckterfield signed a free agent contract with Edmonton of the CFL following his collegiate career and later played for Winnipeg and Toronto.

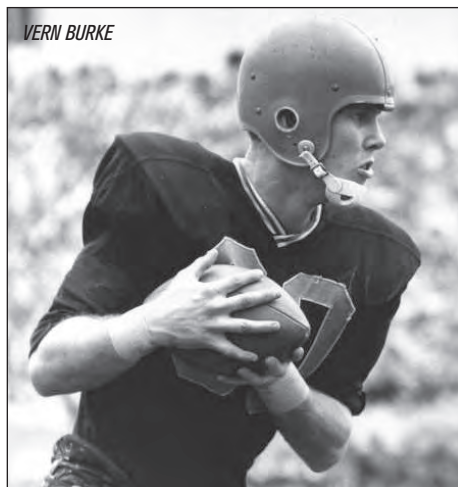

STEVE BROWN • 1972

Steve Brown was a three-year varsity letterman from 1970-72. He earned All-American honors (1972) by nine organizations and publications, including seven first team selections, and he was a two-time All-Pac-8, two-time All-Coast and two-time team defensive MVP selection. Brown came to OSU as a fullback before moving to the defensive side as a freshman. He had a school record 186 tackles as a senior. As a junior he led the team with 134 tackles and had four interceptions against defending conference champion Stanford. He also had 22 tackles in that same '71 game vs. Stanford. At the conclusion of his OSU career he played in the East-West Shrine Game, Hula Bowl and Coaches All-American Bowl. Brown was the team captain of the West in the Shrine Game and co-captain of the North Squad in the Hula Bowl where he made 19 tackles and intercepted three passes. He also had 15 tackles and one interception in the Coaches All-American Bowl. He went on to play professionally for Calgary in 1973 and for the Portland Storm in 1974 before suffering a career-ending knee injury.

BRANDON BROWNER • 2003

Brandon Browner played just two seasons at Oregon State leaving after his sophomore year to pursue the NFL. Browner, a cornerback, was the second OSU player in the history of the program to declare himself eligible for the NFL Draft prior to the end of his college eligibility. He redshirted in 2002 before earning 2003 Freshman All-American honors. The 6-4 Sylmar, Calif., native was the 2003 Pac-10 Freshman of the Year.

VERN BURKE • 1962

Vern Burke is still considered one of the best receivers ever to wear an Oregon State uniform. He caught 69 passes for 1,007 yards in 1962, both NCAA records at the time. At the time of his enshrinement into the OSU Sports Hall of Fame in 1991, he held records for the most passes caught in one game (12) and career receiving touchdowns (19). He was a consensus All-American in 1963 and played five years of professional football. Burke played in the 1963 East-West Shrine and Hula Bowl games. He was inducted into the State of Oregon Sports Hall of Fame in 1982.

SEAN CANFIELD • 2009

Sean Canfield capped his excellent career by becoming OSU's first ever Pac-10 Conference First Team quarterback and earning SI.com Honorable Mention All-American. He compiled a single season school record completion percentage of 67.9 (303-446) as a senior, resulting in 3,271 passing yards and 21 touchdowns. He led the league as a senior with a 251.6 yards per game passing average. For his career he threw for 5,970 yards and 38 touchdowns, both the fourth-highest total in school history at the time.

TERRENCE CARROLL • 1997

Terrence Carroll is one of the top safeties in the program's history and earned Sporting News Freshman All-America honors in 1997 as a redshirt. He started all 11 games for first-year head coach Mike Riley, making 63 tackles, two interceptions and blocking two kicks. He would go on to be a catalyst for the program that ended a 28-year losing streak and he went on to help the team win the 2001 Fiesta Bowl title as a senior. For his career he made 255 tackles and nine interceptions.

STEVE COURY • 1979

Steve Coury was by most accounts Oregon State's MVP in the decade of the 1970's. He was selected first team all-league in the Pac-10 as a senior in 1979. The offensive MVP also earned second team All-Coast. He played in the Blue-Gray Classic and East-West Shrine games. Coury set the record for career receiving yards (1,837) and receptions (135). He accounted for 142 receiving yards in a 1979 game. The four-year letterman went on to play at Ottawa in 1980 before embarking on a coaching career.

SCOTT CRICHTON • 2011

Scott Crichton was named to Freshman All-American teams by Yahoo!Sports.com, CBSSports.com, Phil Steele, Sporting News and CollegeFootballnews.com in 2011. Crichton started all 12 games at defensive end as a redshirt freshman leading the Beavers with 6.5 sacks, 14.5 tackles-for-loss and set a school record with six forced fumbles.

JOHN DIDION • 1967 & 1968

In 1968, John Didion earned consensus All-American honors as a center. As a junior, he was a second team All-American selection by AP and UPI (1967). At the conclusion of his college career, he played in the Coaches All-America, Senior Bowl, Hula Bowl, College All-Star, and East-West Shrine games. He was drafted in the seventh round by the Washington Redskins and enjoyed a pro career that included stints with the Redskins, Saints, Bears and Seahawks.

JIM DIXON • 1926

Jim Dixon played at Oregon State from 1924-26 and was an All-American and All-Coast left tackle selection as a senior. He later served as an assistant coach at Oregon State from 1933-51. The Dixon Recreation Center on campus is named in his honor.

VERNON EILERS • 1928

Vernon Eilers played at Oregon State from 1926-28 and was an All-American selection at guard as a senior by Charles Parker. Helped Oregon State to a 7-1 record in 1926.

BILL ENYART • 1968

Bill Enyart was the third all-time leading rusher in OSU history with 2,155 yards at the time of his induction into the OSU Sports Hall of Fame in 1991. He holds the OSU record for rushing yards in one game with 299 against Utah in 1968. He was a first team All-American in 1968 and was twice named All-Pacific-8. Enyart also was a two-time CoSIDA Academic All-American. He was named the 1968 Hula Bowl Most Valuable Back. Enyart also played in the Senior Bowl, East-West Shrine, College All-Star and the All-American Bowl games. He was inducted to the College Football Hall of Fame in 2011. He was drafted in the second round by Buffalo and later played for Oakland.

RED FRANKLIN • 1933

Red Franklin earned All-American honors in 1933. He had an outstanding career as a halfback and kick returner. At the time of his induction into the OSU Sports Hall of Fame, he held the second longest kickoff return in school history with 94-yard gallop against Fordham and San Francisco during the 1933 season. He played three years for Brooklyn of the NFL. Franklin was inducted into the State of Oregon Sports Hall of Fame in 1980.

CHRIS GIBSON • 2000

Chris Gibson lettered from 1998-2001 and is considered one of the program's all-time best offensive centers. He was a third team All-American as a junior (2000) by the Associated Press and the College Football News after helping the team to the Fiesta Bowl title. He was a first team All-Pac-10 selection in 2000 and second team in 2001. Gibson also played in the O'ahu Bowl.

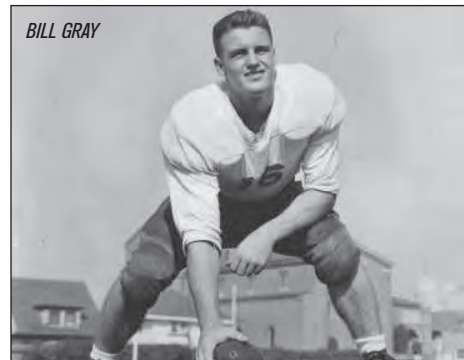

DeLAWRENCE GRANT • 2000

DeLawrence Grant lettered at Oregon State as a defensive end during the 1999 and 2000 seasons, after transferring from El Camino College. Grant, who is one of the quickest defensive linemen in the history of the program, was a second team All-American by the Sporting News and Rivals.com, and third team by the College Football News (2000). Grant was a first team All-Pac-10 selection as a senior and was drafted in the third round by the Oakland Raiders of the NFL.

BILL GRAY • 1943 & 1946

Bill Gray earned first team All-American status at center in 1946 after helping OSU to a 7-1-1 record. He was part of the freshman squad for OSU in 1942, before having his football career interrupted by WWII. Assigned to a V-12 program while awaiting orders in Southern California, Gray earned All-America honorable mention while playing for USC. After his tour with the Marine Corps, Gray returned to Oregon State to finish his football career. Following his graduation, he was drafted by the NFL's Washington Redskins, where he played two seasons.

BILL GRAY

JOE GRAY • 1937

"The Gray Ghost" was one of the most outstanding halfbacks in Oregon State history. As a senior, in 1937, he received All-America honorable mention. Gray was also a first team All-Coast pick in his final season and was mentioned on several other All-Coast teams as a junior. At the time, he was called the greatest running and passing back ever to play at Oregon State. Gray was the first OSU player ever drafted in the first round by the NFL (Chicago).

QUENTIN GREENOUGH • 1941

Quentin Greenough played two seasons at Oregon State and starred at center in the 1942 Rose Bowl against Duke. As a senior he was named All-Coast and second team All-American (1941). He played in the 1944 East-West Shrine Game. He later served as an assistant coach at Oregon State. Greenough was inducted into the State of Oregon Sports Hall of Fame in 1981.

CRAIG HANNEMAN • 1970

A three-year letterman defensive lineman from 1968-70, Craig Hanneman was selected a second team All-American in 1970 and first team All-Pac-8 and All-Coast. He was named OSU's 1968 Rookie of the Year, 1970 defensive MVP and team captain. Hanneman's top games included 13 tackles versus UCLA and 12 against California in the '70 season. He also recovered two fumbles against Houston and had three tackles for loss for 33 yards against Oklahoma. At the conclusion of his senior season, he played in the Hula Bowl, Coaches All-American Bowl and East-West Shrine Game. He was drafted in the sixth round by the Pittsburgh Steelers and played for the club from 1972-73. He concluded his professional career with the New England Patriots from 1974-76.

MIKE HASS • 2004 & 2005

Mike Hass was named first team All-American in 2005 by the Walter Camp Foundation, ESPN.com and the Associated Press. His honors as a senior included earning the Biletnikoff Award as the nation's premier receiver after making a school record 90 receptions for a Pac-10 record 1,532 yards. He concluded his career with 19 100-yard plus receiving yards games and was the first player in Pac-10 history with three 1,000-plus receiving yards seasons. He caught at least one pass in his last 30 games. For his career he accumulated 3,924 yards receiving, third in the history of the Pac-10 (Troy Walters, Stanford, 4,047). He was selected to play in the East-West Shrine Game following his senior season. Hass was also selected the Male Oregon Amateur Athlete of the Year (Hayward Award) at the Oregon Sports Awards. Mike earned third team Associated Press All-American status as a junior in 2004. The first team All-Pac-10 Conference selection in 2004 broke the league record for receiving yards when he collected 293 at Boise State on Sept. 10 and later would add his name in the OSU record book for pass receptions in one game with 14 at Arizona State - all in '03. He led the Pac-10 and was third in NCAA Division I for receiving yards per game at 114.9 as a junior. He came to OSU originally as a walk-on.

STEVEN JACKSON • 2002 & 2003

Steven Jackson earned third-team All-American by the Associated Press and honorable mention All-American by College Football News and Sports Illustrated in 2003. He was a unanimous All-Pacific-10 Conference selection as a junior ('03) after rushing for 1,545 yards. He finished the '03 season 10th in the nation for rushing and had 19 100-yard plus rushing games for his career, including 239 vs. California ('02), 230 vs. Stanford ('02), 227 vs. Fresno State ('02) and California ('03). Jackson, who announced after his MVP performance in the Las Vegas Bowl (149 yards, 5 tds vs. New Mexico) that he was entering the NFL Draft, finished his career 10th on the Pac-10 career rushing list with 3,625 yards. He was named first team All-Pac-10 and third team All-American as a sophomore (2002) after rushing for 1,690 yards, the sixth-highest total by any conference player and most by a Pac-10 athlete from a school other than USC. Jackson was taken by the St. Louis Rams in the first round of the 2004 NFL Draft.

JUSTIN KAHUT • 2009

Justin Kahut (K-hoot) earned honorable mention All-America honors in 2009 from SI.com. In his junior season of 2009 he made 22 field goals (27 att.), one short of the single season OSU record. Kahut made four goals in wins over UCLA and Oregon in '09, earning Pac-10 Player of the Week honors for each (for his career he was selected three times). He had two game-winning field goals on the last play – a 33-yard boot at UNLV in 2009 and a 24-yard kick at Arizona in 2008. Kahut also was a three-time Pac-10 Honorable Mention academic selection. For his career he made 39 of 52 field goal attempts and was good on 84 of 88 extra point tries.

FLETCHER KEISTER • 1992

Fletcher Keister earned third team All-American honors in 1992 after serving as the team's co-captain. The offensive guard earned the team's MVP honor. Keister, from Albany, Ore., started 24 consecutive games to end his career. He signed a free agent contract with the Houston Oilers after his senior season.

JIM KISSELBURGH • 1940

Jim Kisselburgh played fullback for OSU from 1938-40 earning All-America honorable mention as a senior. Kisselburgh was selected in the sixth round of the NFL Draft by the Cleveland Rams.

RICH KOEPER • 1964

Rich Koeper was one of the greatest offensive linemen in Oregon State's history. He played in the 1962 Liberty Bowl and 1965 Rose Bowl. He earned second team All-American honors as a senior (1964). Koeper also was an All-Pac-8 pick as a senior and first team All-Coast as a sophomore. He played in the 1964 Hula Bowl. He was drafted by Green Bay and played three seasons in the NFL. He later served as an assistant coach for the late Dee Andros.

RICH KOEPER

ANDY LEVITRE • 2008

Andy Levitre is one of the most technically sound offensive linemen in Oregon State history. Levitre earned American Football Coaches Association and Pro Football Weekly First Team All-America honors as a senior in 2008 and was named as an Associated Press Second Team All-American. He was a 2008 Pac-10 First Team, 2007 Second Team and 2006 Honorable Mention selection. A co-team captain in 2008, was the Pac-10's Tom Hansen Medal winner and a four-time Pac-10 all-academic performer. Levitre was taken in the second round by the Buffalo Bills in the 2009 NFL Draft.

JESS LEWIS • 1967

Jess Lewis was a 1967 All-American and two-time All-Pac-8 Conference defensive tackle. He was selected the team MVP in 1969. He also was a standout wrestler, capturing three conference and two NCAA wrestling titles. In addition, Lewis competed in the 1968 World University and Olympic Games. He was inducted into the State of Oregon Sports Hall of Fame in 1981.

KEENAN LEWIS • 2005

Keenan Lewis finished his career as one of the most celebrated cornerbacks in Oregon State history. Lewis made 47 starts during his career (third-highest ever at OSU as of 2008) after earning a starting spot as a freshman. In 2005, as a freshman, Lewis earned College Football News Third Team Freshman All-American and was honorable mention by the Sporting News. Lewis was taken in the third round of the 2009 NFL Draft by the Pittsburgh Steelers.

SEAN MANNION • 2011

Sean Mannion took over the starting position in game three of his redshirt freshman season. He finished the season having thrown for 3,328 yards and completed 64.5 percent (305-473) of his passes and 16 touchdowns. Along the way he established single game records for passes thrown (66) and completed (40) at Arizona State. Mannion was named a first team Freshman All-American by the Football Writers Association of America.

HOWARD MAPLE • 1928

Howard Maple lettered at Oregon State from 1926-28. He was a second team All-American quarterback as a senior (1928). He earned All-Coast recognition twice. Knute Rockne called him "the ideal quarterback." He went on to play pro football for the Chicago Cardinals and baseball for the Washington Senators. Maple was inducted into the State of Oregon Sports Hall of Fame in 1981.

BILL MCKALIP • 1930

Bill McKalip earned three All-American honors in 1930, including by the United Press. "Wild Bill" as a senior earned All-Pacific Coast Conference and Associated Press All-Northwest First Team. The end played in the East-West Shrine game and went on to be a three-time All-Pro with Portsmouth and Detroit. He was inducted into the State of Oregon Sports Hall of Fame in 1991.

MITCH MEEUWSEN • 2001 & 2004

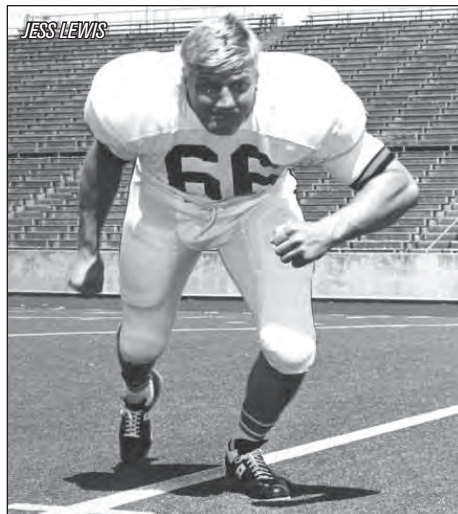

Mitch Meeuwesen left OSU in 2004 as arguably the school's top safety in the history of the program. The 2004 Associated Press Third Team and ESPN.com First Team All-American ended his career as the program's career leader for interceptions with 20. He was a semi-finalist for the Jim Thorpe Award as a senior, given annually to the nation's premier defensive back. Meeuwesen, from Forest Grove, started 40 consecutive games and played in three bowl games. He was invited to the Las Vegas All-American Classic following his senior year. Several organizations named him to their Freshman All-American teams in 2001. He made 217 career tackles.

MEIER NEWMAN • 1917

Meier Newman, along with Ozburn Walker, earned All-American honors from the Stars of 1917 after lettering for the Aggies from 1915-17 and helped the Aggies to an upset at Michigan State in 1915.

JACK O'BILLOVICH • 1964

Jack O'Billovich earned All-American honors as a junior (1964) and helped Oregon State to the 1965 Rose Bowl. He also earned All-Coast as a junior and All-Pac-8 as a senior. He was the team captain as a senior and went on to play in the Hula Bowl and East-West Shrine Game. O'Billovich played the 1967 season with the CFL's Hamilton TigerCats.

STEPHEN PAEA • 2010

Stephen Paea was one of the premier defensive tackles in the nation as a senior. The two-time team captain became the second Beaver to earn the Pac-10 Conference's Pat Tillman Defensive Player of the Year honor in 2010 and added his second straight Morris Trophy given to the league's top defensive linemen as voted on by the conference's offensive linemen. Paea was selected to the Associated Press and Sports Illustrated All-American First Team in 2010. Paea was selected in the second round of the 2011 NFL Draft by the Chicago Bears.

JEREMY PERRY • 2005

Jeremy Perry was named to the Sporting News Freshman All-American team in 2005. Perry started all 11 games at left guard and concluded the season earning Pac-10 Conference Co-Freshman of the Year honors.

GEORGE PETERS • 1941

George Peters lettered as a back in 1940 and 1941. He received All-America honorable mention following the 1941 season after helping the Beavers to the Rose Bowl. Peters was taken in the eighth round of the 1942 NFL Draft by the Washington Redskins.

MICHAEL PHILIPP • 2009

Michael Philipp was named to Freshman All-American teams by Phil Steele and CollegeFootballNews.com in 2010. Philipp started all 13 games at left tackle, the first true freshman to start on the offensive line since 1997.

GEORGE "GAP" POWELL • 1921

Gap Powell lettered in football and track from 1918-21. He was a two-time All-Coast selection in football and earned All-American honors in 1921. Powell was also the 1920 Pacific Coast Conference shot champion. He was inducted into the State of Oregon Hall of Fame in 1982.

JACQUIZZ RODGERS • 2008 & 2009

In 2008, Jacquizz Rodgers had what was arguably the greatest impact of a freshman in the history of the program. Despite missing nearly all of the last three games of the season due to injury, he became the first freshman to be named as the Pac-10 Offensive Player of the Year as well as the conference's Freshman of the Year. With 1,253 yards, "Quizz" set the Pac-10 mark for rushing yards by a freshman. He was named USA Today, Rivals.com and CollegeFootballNews.com Player of the Week after rushing for 186 yards and two touchdowns in a victory over then No. 1 USC. Surpassing the 100-yard plateau seven times, he was named Pac-10 Player of the Week on three occasions en route to being named the Rivals.com Freshman of the Year, College Football News All-Freshman Team, Football Writers Association Freshman All-American, CBS Sports.com Freshman of the Year and Sporting News National Freshman of the Year. The Associated Press and Rivals.com selected Quizz as a third team All-American. He finished his career as one of three players in history to achieve 3,000 yards rushing and 1,000 yards receiving in only three years, joining Ryan Benjamin of Pacific (1990-92) and Reggie Bush of USC (2003-05). He was taken in the fifth round of the 2011 NFL Draft by the Atlanta Falcons.

JAMES RODGERS • 2009

James Rodgers scored Honorable Mention All-America honors as a wide receiver and as an all-purpose player from SI.com in his junior season. He was named to the Pac-10 Conference's First Team as a junior as a wide receiver after making a school record 91 receptions. Rodgers set the school record in 2009 for all-purpose yards with 2,328 and set a single game record with 303 yards vs. Oregon.

JON SANDSTROM • 1967

Jon Sandstrom was a three-year starting defensive lineman from 1966-1968. He was a first team All-American as a junior (1967) and was a preseason All-American in 1968. Sandstrom earned first team All-Pac-8 as a senior and was named the team's MVP. He played in the College All-Star Game, Hula Bowl, Senior Bowl and Coaches All-America Bowl at the conclusion of his college career. Sandstrom was drafted in the third round in 1969 by the Atlanta Falcons and would also play for the CFL's Winnipeg Blue Bombers.

ROY SCHUENING • 2004 & 2007

Roy Schuening concluded his collegiate career as one of the best linemen in OSU history. Schuening started a school record 50 games, all consecutively, during his career. As a senior in 2007, Schuening received Pac-10 First Team honors and was named to the Pro Football Weekly All-America squad. He was an All-Pac-10 Honorable Mention selection in 2005 and '06, and was a Sporting News All-Freshman Team member in 2004. Schuening was taken in the fifth round of the 2008 NFL Draft by the St. Louis Rams.

EBERLE SCHULTZ • 1939

Eberle Schultz played both ways on the line, but earned most of his accolades for his play on the offensive side of the ball. He earned first team All-Coast honors in 1939 and helped Oregon State post a 9-1-1 mark that season. He was drafted by Philadelphia in the fourth round of the NFL Draft and played a total of six pro seasons, including stops in Pittsburgh and Cleveland.

ADOLPHE "ADE" SCHWAMMEL • 1933

Ade Schwammel lettered in football from 1931-33, earning first team All-American and All-Pacific Coast as a senior (1933). He was one of the key players in the now illegal "pyramid play." Schwammel played in the 1934 East-West Shrine Game. He won two professional titles in his six years with the Green Bay Packers.

VIC SEARS • 1940

Vic Sears was an All-American lineman in 1940, becoming the second lineman in school history to earn such acclaim. He lettered three seasons and was drafted in the fourth round by the Pittsburgh Steelers at the conclusion of his college career. He never played for the Steelers, but played for Philadelphia for 10 years. Sears, who played in the 1941 East-West Shrine Game, was inducted into the State of Oregon Sports Hall of Fame in 1980.

RICHARD SEIGLER • 2000 & 2003

Richard Seigler is one of OSU's top linebackers in the history of the program. He earned recognition as a freshman in 2000 by being named to the Freshman All-American teams by the Sporting News and Football News. The four-year letterman was a 2004 fourth round NFL Draft selection of the San Francisco 49ers. The Las Vegas native was a two-time All-Pac-10 Conference selection (2002, '03) and was a co-team MVP after his senior year. Seigler played in the Fiesta, Insight and Las Vegas Bowls during his career, and at the conclusion of his OSU playing days competed in the East-West Shrine Game and was named All-America honorable mention by College Football News. Seigler left OSU fourth for career tackles with 356.

ALEXIS SERNA • 2005 & 2006

Alexis Serna earned All-America honors in 2005 by the American Football Coaches Association and was a second team member by the Associated Press and Walter Camp Foundation. Serna was honored with the Lou Groza Award, signifying the nation's premier kicker in 2005. During his stellar sophomore season Serna made 23 of 28 field goal attempts and all 32 extra point tries. He tied the OSU record by making 15 consecutive field goals during the 2005 season. He broke an OSU record and tied the Pac-10 record with a 6-for-6 performance at Washington, earning him Pac-10 Special Teams Player of the Week honors. Serna came to OSU originally as a walk-on. He signed a contract to play for the CFL's Winnipeg Blue Bombers at the conclusion of his OSU career.

KEN SIMONTON • 2000 & 2001

Ken Simonton lettered from 1998-2001 and is considered one of the school's best running backs ever. Simonton concluded his career with a school record 5,044 yards and at the time of his graduation was one of only six players in Pac-10 history to rush for 1,000-plus yards in three different seasons. His 5,044 yards ranked second most ever in the conference, trailing only USC's Charles White. When he left OSU, he held 11 school rushing marks. Simonton rushed for 100-plus yards 26 times during his 46-game OSU career, including three 200-yard plus marks. Simonton led OSU to the Fiesta and O'ahu Bowls, but he may be most remembered for scoring the winning touchdown in the 1998 triple-overtime victory over Oregon. Simonton's professional career included stops in Buffalo, San Francisco and Calgary.

SAMMIE STROUGHTER • 2006

Sammie Strougter burst onto the scene in 2006 as a big play threat at wide receiver and as a punt returner after two seasons in the shadow of two-time All-American Mike Hass. Strougter was named a third team All-American all-purpose player by the Associated Press following one of the best seasons by a wide receiver in Oregon State history. Strougter converted 74 receptions into 1,293 yards including a 223-yard game at Washington. In addition, Strougter returned three punts for touchdowns during the season to set a school record, including a memorable 70-yard return in one of the biggest upsets in OSU history over No. 3 USC. He was drafted by the NFL's Tampa Bay Buccaneers at the conclusion of his career at Oregon State.

JIM WALKER • 1977

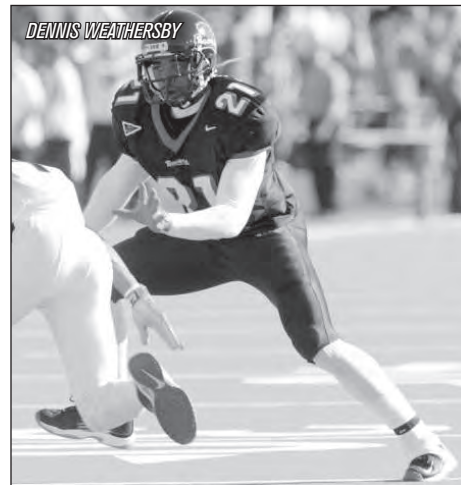

Jim Walker earned Associated Press Honorable Mention honors as a center his senior season in 1977. He also was a member of the All-Pac-8 Conference and All-Coast second teams. The team captain also played in the Challenge Bowl in Seattle. He signed a free agent contract with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers following his senior year.

OZBURN WALKER • 1917

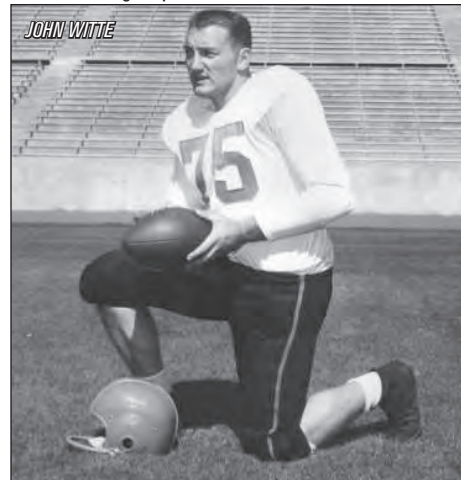

Ozburn Walker, along with Meier Newman, earned All-American honors from the Stars of 1917 after playing just one season for the Aggies.

DENNIS WEATHERSBY • 2000, 2001 & 2002

Dennis Weathersby was arguably Oregon State's top cornerback in the history of the program. He lettered from 1999-2002 and helped the program compete in the Fiesta, O'ahu and Insight Bowls. Weathersby was a standout on the field and in the classroom. He earned first team District VIII All-Academic honors as a junior and senior. As a senior he was a semifinalist for the Jim Thorpe Award, given annually to the nation's premier defensive back, earned second team All-American by the Sporting News and third team All-American by College Football News. He concluded his career by being selected to play in the East-West Shrine Game and was later a fourth round selection in the NFL Draft by the Cincinnati Bengals.

JOHN WITTE • 1955 & 1956

John Witte was a two-time All-American selection (1955-56), the only OSU player to ever achieve such status at the time of his playing career. He played in the 1957 Rose Bowl game against Iowa. He also was an outstanding wrestler, finishing second at the NCAA Championships as a freshman. He was inducted into the State of Oregon Sports Hall of Fame in 1983.

DYLAN WYNN • 2011

Dylan Wynn was named a Freshman All-American honorable mention by College Football News in 2011. Wynn started seven games at defensive end recording 5.5 tackles-for-loss. He set a school record with five fumble recoveries as a true freshman.

LEN YOUNCE • 1939

Len Younce received All-American honorable mention following the 1939 season. Younce, an offensive guard, along with linemate Eberle Schultz opened big holes for Jim Kesselburgh (All-American in 1940) as the Beavers finished the season 9-1-1. He was an 8th round draft choice of the New York Giants in 1941. He was inducted into the Oregon Sports Hall of Fame in 1980 and entered the OSU Athletic Hall of Fame in 1988.

Note: Any additions or corrections are appreciated. Please contact the Oregon State University Athletics Communications Office with the information.

The home of the Oregon State University Beavers has had $115 million in fiscal improvements completed since the 2005 season, including installation of a state-of-the-art video board, then the largest in the Conference at the end of the 2007 season. The east side of the complex houses some of the finest amenities in all of college and NFL football, including the popular Club and Loge levels.

Over the last six years the capacity of the stadium has increased by 11,000 and now features some of the best viewing in all of college football.

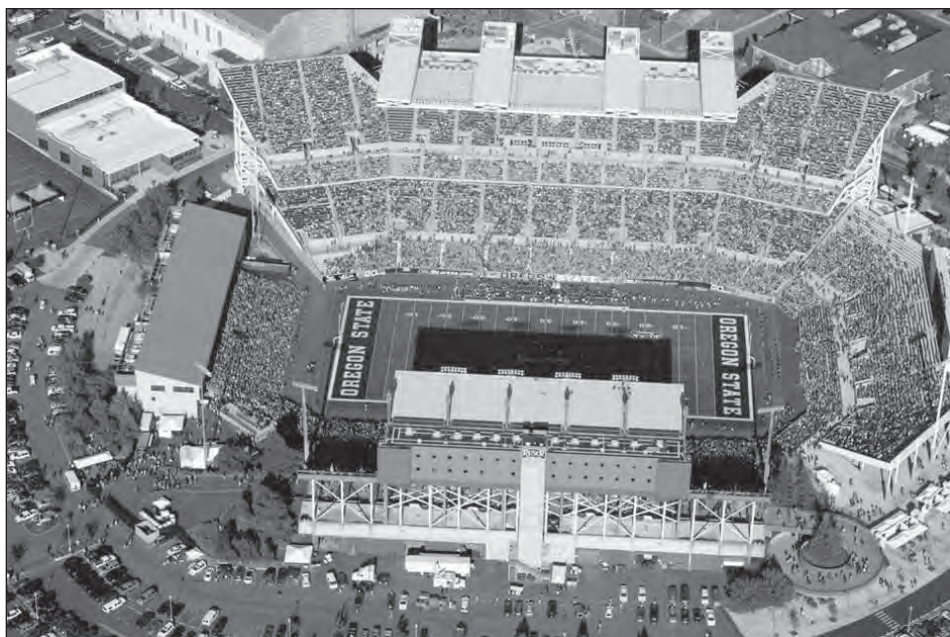

The OSU student-body sits directly behind the Beavers' bench along the east sidelines, with passionate fans in other sections. One of the unique aspects of the stadium is that the seating is close to the field, giving OSU a distinct home field advantage.

That home field advantage has helped the Beavers score some of the program's biggest wins in recent seasons, including snapping USC's 27-game Pac-10 Conference win streak in 2006 and then defeating the No. 1 Trojans in 2008.

Reser Stadium was originally known as Parker Stadium until June 14, 1999. At that time Al and Pat Reser of Beaverton, Ore., made a personal seven-figure gift to OSU athletics.

The stadium, which is located on the south side of campus, was originally built in 1953 at a cost of $330,463.19 with a seating capacity of 28,000. Following the 1965 Rose Bowl, additional end zone bleacher seats were added to raise the capacity to 33,000. The stadium was expanded to 40,593 in 1967 with a new addition to the west side, including a new press box. Stadium capacity was reduced in 1990 as a result of the construction of the original Valley Football Center. In June of 1996, an enlarged Valley Football Center opened. The stadium's capacity is now 45,674.

Reser Stadium has become a shining monument for not only Athletics, but the entire University. "Beaver Nation" has embraced the upgrades to the facility that has become a source of pride for all of Oregon State University.

OREGON STATE UNIVERSITY

Oregon State University has always been a place with a purpose — making a positive difference in quality of life, natural resources and economic prosperity in Oregon and beyond. Through discovery, innovation and application, we are meeting challenges, solving problems and turning ideas into reality.

Founded in 1868, Oregon State is the state's Land Grant university and is one of only two universities in the U.S. to have Sea Grant, Space Grant and Sun Grant designations. Oregon State is also the only university in Oregon to hold both the Carnegie Foundation's top designation for research institutions and its prestigious Community Engagement classification.

As Oregon's largest public research university, with $261.7 million in external funding in the 2011 fiscal year, Oregon State's impact reaches across the state and beyond. With 12 colleges, 15 Agricultural Experiment Stations, 35 county Extension offices, the Hatfield Marine Sciences Center in Newport and OSU-Cascades in Bend, Oregon State has a presence in every one of Oregon's 36 counties, with a statewide economic footprint of $2.06 billion.

Oregon State welcomes a diverse student body of nearly 25,000 students from across Oregon, all 50 states and more than 100 countries. They can choose from more than 200 undergraduate and more than 80 graduate degree programs, including over 20 degrees offered online. Oregon State increasingly attracts high-achieving students, with nationally recognized programs in areas such as conservation biology, agricultural sciences, nuclear engineering, forestry, fisheries and wildlife management, community health, pharmacy and zoology.

Oregon State also ranks high in sustainability, fourth among universities nationwide for using renewable energy and first in the Pac-12 Conference. And our students literally help power the university: 22 exercise machines at Dixon Recreation Center are connected to the grid.

The 400-acre main campus in Corvallis includes a Historic District, making Oregon State one of only a handful of U.S. university campuses listed on the National Register of Historic Places. The district includes such icons as Weatherford Hall, the Memorial Union and Benton Hall, the oldest building on campus.

Oregon State is located in Corvallis, a vibrant college town of 55,000 in the heart of Western Oregon's Willamette Valley. Corvallis consistently ranks among the best and safest cities to live in the U.S., as well as among the most environmentally responsible.

10th YEAR AT OREGON STATE
QUEENS COLLEGE (CUNY), '66

UNIVERSITY PRESIDENT

Dr. Edward J. Ray assumed the position of Oregon State University's President on July 31, 2003. Prior to coming to Oregon State, Ray was executive vice president and provost of The Ohio State University.

Under his leadership, OSU has completed and updated a visionary campus-wide strategic plan that is serving as the framework for the university's development in profound and historic ways. Annual research awards and contracts have increased and totaled $261.7 million in fiscal year 2011.

President Ray has partnered with the OSU Foundation to launch the university's first comprehensive fundraising campaign. The public phase launched in October 2007 with a goal of $625 million. By June 2012, the campaign total reached $827 million, including $139 million for scholarships and fellowships, 57 newly endowed faculty positions, and funding for key scientific and learning facilities like the Lois Bates Acheson Veterinary Teaching Hospital, the Hallie Ford Center for Healthy Children and Families, the Linus Pauling Science Center and four new cultural centers. Because of the campaign's tremendous momentum and success, it has been extended to 2014 with a goal of $1 billion.

Mindful of OSU's commitment to the people of Oregon, Dr. Ray has overseen the expansion of dual-enrollment agreements to all 17 of the state's community colleges, making it easier for students to complete four-year degrees. He has also taken a leadership role in fostering a more seamless P-20 system, working with area school superintendents, community college leaders and university colleagues to strengthen institutional connections and enhance the student experience. Dr. Ray has also helped to usher in a new era of partnership and cooperation between Oregon's public universities.

Dr. Ray was a member of the economics faculty at Ohio State from 1970-2003, serving as economics department chair from 1976 to 1992. He served as an associate provost from May 1992 until May 1993, senior vice provost and chief information officer from 1993-1998, and executive vice president and provost from 1998-2003.

His research interests include the history of protectionism in the United States, the determinants of U.S. foreign direct investment and foreign direct investment in the United States, the structure of tariff and non tariff trade barriers in the United States and abroad and the adoption of Social Security. His work has been published in The American Economic Review, The Journal of Political Economy, The Quarterly Journal of Economics, The Review of Economic Studies, The Review of Economics and Statistics, and other leading journals. He has co-authored a principles text, and his book, "U. S. Protectionism and the World Debt Crisis" was published by Quorum Press in 1989.

Dr. Ray received his undergraduate degree in mathematics from Queens College (CUNY) in June 1966, graduating cum laude and Phi Beta Kappa. He earned his master's in economics from Stanford University in 1969 and his doctorate in economics from Stanford in June 1971.

Before becoming first lady at Oregon State, his wife Beth worked as a practicing attorney, taught business law courses as a faculty member in the Department of Finance at Ohio State University and most recently was a counselor and assistant dean in the College of Arts and Sciences while at Ohio State. They have three children and three grandchildren.

Bob DE CAROLIS

11th YEAR AT OREGON STATE
BLOOMSBURG STATE COLLEGE (PA), '76

DIRECTOR OF ATHLETICS

Director of Athletics Bob De Carolis was appointed to his current position on Aug. 28, 2002 by then OSU President Dr. Paul Risser and has since led the Beavers to unprecedented success on and off the fields of play. The popular De Carolis, who was selected the 2010 Football Bowl Subdivision West Region Under Armour Athletic Director of the Year by his peers, signed a five-year contract extension in April of 2011 that takes him through June 30, 2016.

De Carolis originally joined the OSU staff on April 20, 1998 as associate athletic director of internal operations; he was promoted to senior associate athletic director on July 1, 1999. Prior to coming to Oregon State, he spent 19 years on the athletic department staff at the University of Michigan.

Since arriving at OSU, De Carolis has developed and executed the financial recovery plan that helped the Department of Athletics eliminate a $12.5 million accumulated deficit and grow the overall budget by more than $25 million. At the same time, the department was able to not only maintain competitive teams, but also had its first winning football season in nearly three decades, its first winning men's basketball campaign in 15 years, the softball program made its first appearance in the College World Series and the baseball team competed in the College World Series for the first time in over five decades – capturing the 2006 and 2007 national championships. With him in a leadership role, the football program has played in nine bowl games, men's basketball captured the College Basketball Invitational (2009), and gymnastics has competed in the national championships seven straight years. OSU experienced one of its best athletic seasons in school history in 2011-12 with 12 of its 17 intercollegiate teams participating in postseason.

De Carolis has been responsible for hiring some of the most high profile coaches in OSU history, including Mike Riley (football), former U.S. Olympic coach Taras Liskevych (volleyball), three-time NCAA Coach of the Year Jim Zalesky (wrestling), Craig Robinson (men's basketball), Kelly Sullivan (women's track/cross country), Larry Liebowitz (women's swimming), Linus Rhode (women's soccer), Steve Todd (men's rowing), Emily Ford (women's rowing), Steve Simmons (men's soccer), and most recently Scott Rueck (women's basketball) and Jon Reehoon (men's golf).

He spearheaded the feasibility study for a plan that has expanded and renovated Reser Stadium to its current capacity of nearly 46,000. Improvements at the Stadium since the beginning of 2005 have included a new east side structure that houses some of the best amenities in all of college football, construction of the largest video board in the Pac-12 (as of 2007 season) and new seating in the south end zone. In all, approximately $115 million in improvements to the football facility alone has enabled "Beaver Nation" to create one of the best home field advantages in the country. Beaver fans have responded with record ticket purchases.

Facilities have been at the forefront of De Carolis' goals and in the last year OSU has opened the Student Success Center (SSC), the OSU Boathouse and the Whyte Track and Field Center. The $14 million SSC is a shared facility with the OSU campus, the $2.5 million Boathouse opened in the fall of 2011 and the first phase of the $8 million track facility will officially be dedicated in September of 2012. OSU also broke ground in June on its four-story basketball practice facility that will be connected to the Sports Performance Center (SPC).

The SPC houses a 17,000-square foot strength training area and a 7,000-square foot wrestling practice facility. In 2009 and '12 Gill Coliseum underwent an exterior improvement project, in addition to the construction of a $4 million sports medicine facility and women's basketball locker room. The Valley Football Center is also undergoing a continuing remodeling phase, with a recent student-athlete lounge opening.

In addition to the latest projects, De Carolis has also managed the recent completion of the home of the two-time national champion baseball team – Goss Stadium at Coleman Field. During his tenure the Merritt Truax Indoor Center and the OSU Softball Complex have been constructed, and the Tommy Prothro Football Complex and several locker rooms were renovated.

It's not all about wins, losses or new facilities; De Carolis has stressed the importance of being a total student-athlete and being a part of the community. With his leadership, nearly 50 percent of the entire athletic roster sports a cumulative GPA of 3.00 or higher. Community service hours have increased nearly 300 percent during his tenure and contributions for scholarships to the Beaver Athletic Student Fund have increased from $6 million to over $11 million.

De Carolis is also actively involved in national and conference level committees just having completed a stint as chair of the conference television committee, former chair of the conference budget and finance committee, and served on the bowl committee. He also has been active on numerous NCAA committees, including the Football Bowl Subdivision Issues Committee, the Student-Athlete Benefits and Financial Aid Cabinet, and the prestigious Management Council (MANCO).

He started his Michigan career in 1979 as an administrative assistant. He was promoted to assistant business manager in 1980; at the same time, he was also named the head softball coach. De Carolis was Michigan's softball coach from 1980 to 1984 and his Wolverines had a third-place finish at the AIAW national championships.

De Carolis was promoted from assistant business manager to business manager in 1983; in 1987 to assistant athletic director for business; in 1990 to associate athletic director for internal operations; in 1994 to senior director for financial operations; in 1996 to senior associate athletic director and became responsible for all athletic facilities and venues at Michigan.

Under his leadership as senior director for financial operations, De Carolis led negotiations with Nike for an all-school contract for athletic shoes and apparel – one of the first of its kind in the country. He established a long-term relationship with Pepsi-Cola for beverage rights, to all athletic venues.

De Carolis also spearheaded a "gift brick" donor program for Michigan Stadium, developed a comprehensive capital improvement program and coordinated the development of a master plan for the renovation of Michigan Stadium.

De Carolis is a 1976 graduate of Bloomsburg State College in Bloomsburg, Pa., with a B.S. in business education. He received a Master's of Science degree in sports management in 1979 from the University of Massachusetts. During his undergraduate days at Bloomsburg, he was a two-year letterwinner in football and baseball from 1973-75.

He got his first taste of coaching at Bloomsburg State when he served as an assistant coach in baseball and football from 1976-78.

In the fall of 2008 he was awarded the Harold VanderZwaag distinguished alumnus award from UMASS. In the fall of 2009 he was inducted into the Bloomsburg University Hall of Fame.

Bob is married to the former Sandra Taylor and they have three children, daughter Lyndsay, a 2011 graduate of the University of Michigan, and twin daughters Lauren and Hayley. Lauren is a sophomore at the University of Wisconsin and Hayley is a sophomore at California Polytechnic State University (SLO).

HISTORY OF OSU SIDS

There have been only six Sports Information Directors in Oregon State's history. Oregon State's current SID, Steve Fenk, joined the OSU staff in September of 1990 as the men's basketball SID. It was not until 2004 that he took over as the Interim Sports Information Director for the entire department. In 2006, Fenk received a permanent appointment as an Assistant Athletic Director for Communications.

A complete list of OSU Sports Information Directors follows:

Art Taafe	1924-37
Bud Forrester	1937-41
Irwin Harris	1942-51

PLAYOFF COMING IN 2014-15

On June 26, 2012, the BCS Presidential Oversight Committee agreed to launch a four-team playoff beginning with the 2014-15 season. The new format will continue at least 12 years, through the 2025-26 season.

The semifinals will be rotated among six bowl games and will be played either New Year's Eve or New Year's Day. The championship game, to be managed by the 11 conferences and rotated among neutral sites every year, will be on a Monday at least six days after the last semifinal game.

A selection committee will rank the teams for the playoff.
